BODY OF EDWARD RESTS AT WINDSOR

Sovereigns and British Pay Last Tribute to Dead Monarch.

WAS BRILLIANT SPECTACLE

Millions of People Viewed Funeral Pageant—Body Placed in Windsor Castle—Crowned Heads of Europe Present.

London, May 20.—Sovereigns and representatives of the powers of all the world paid last tribute today to England's great monarch Edward VII., whose body now rest in St. George's chaped at Windsor Castle, where the bones of Edward IV., the sixth and eighth Henrys, Charles I., the third and fourth Georges and William IV., are entombed.

Bright sunshine followed a night of thunderstorms that swept the city and soaked the funeral decorations of royal purpose, the half mast d flags and the wreaths of evergreens and flowers that hung along the line of march, but this had no deterrent effect on the gathering thousands, who from mid night until dawn sought points of vantage from which to watch the passing of the cortege.

London's millions filled the streets and open places, as they have never before filled them, either at a funeral or a festival. All the pageantry that marked the burial of Victoria was as naught when compared with the magnificence of today's spectacle, which though it passed through a multitude of hushed people, reverently bent, was splendid in its accompaniments of gilded coaches, brilliant uniforms and recorations.

Far surpassing the ceremony attending the removal of the King's body from Buckingham Palace to Westminster Hall, the procession today included nine sovereigns, the former president of the United States, Theodore Roosevelt, who alone was unarrayed in uniform, the heirs to several thrones, the members of the royal families, the officers of the households, officials of the government, field marshals, generals and admirals, whose names are synonymous with Britain's achievements in war, detachments of troops of all the British arms and representatives of foreign armies and navies in variegated uniforms, a solid phalanx of glittering colors.

The lines of red coated soldiery were drawn as on that other great occasion of England's mourning nine years ago with arms revered and regimental flags dipped to the ground. The vast throngs along the streets were massed so tight that those once caught found it impossible to move. The great viewing stands, covered with mourning emblems were crowded, the roof tops black. And through this multitude, from among whom not a whisper arose, the gun carriage that bore the King's body moved to the strains of funeral marches, the tolling of bells and the booming of minute guns, very different from many another day when Edward in glory of his reign, went to meet his people and be acclaimed.

At Westminster Hall the widowed queen, going to spend a last few minutes beside the body of the King, was assisted from her carriage by the German Emperor, upon whom the loss of his royal uncle has laid heavily. The Emperor kissed the hand and cheek of Alexandra and passed her to her son, King George. Here the queen mother, glancing up, caught sight of the king's charger, waiting to follow his master to the bier, and near at hand the king's favorite dog led by a gillie, and she faltered, gripping the arm of the King and pathetically gazing upon the animals, Edward had loved so well. Then she entered the hall with King George, Emperor William and the Duke of Connaught, there to offer a silent prayer and watch the removal of the cofin to the gun carriage.

The order of precedence in the procession was governed by kinship as related to the position of the sovereigns. The special envoys of the United States and France occupied the eighth carriage and although ex-President Roosevelt was inconspicuous in the procession, King George gave him marked attention at the lunch at Windsor Castle after the funeral, seating him, with eight other guests, at his own table. The German Emperor sat with the Queen Mother and Queen Mary. That which impressed Mr. Roosevelt most was the demeanor of the people, the solemn dignity of the ceremony.

From Paddington station the royal train carried the coffin and mourners to Windsor while special trains were filled with officials and foreign representatives. Blue jackets dragged the gun carriage through a line of purple to St. George's chapel, and there simple services were said by the archbishops of Canterbury and York assisted by other prelates. King George, with Alexandra on his arm, walked up the nave behind the coffin with the German Emperor and Queen Mary following.

During the service the widowed queen moved to the foot of the catafalque and knelt and just before the coffin was lowered to the crypt, King George placed upon it a royal standard.

Several of the royal mourners, including Archduke Francis Ferdinand, of Austria, and Prince Charles, of Sweden, left London tonight, but all the reigning monarchs remained and the King and Queen had another notable dinner party at Buckingham Palace this evening. The departure of the sovereigns will begin tomorrow, but the German Emperor is expected to stay here until Monday night.

In Memory of Edward.

Richmond, Va., May 20.—At 6 o'clock this evening in Holy Trinity Episcopal church here, a special service in memory of King Edward VII was held and was largely attended.

It was participated in by members of the Episcopal Council of Virginia, which ended its annual session here today. Eloquent tribute was paid to King Edward in the sermon which was preached by Bishop Coadjutor Lloyd.

NATION IS WILD OVER ARMAMENT

Asserted in Senate During Debate on Naval Appropriation Bill.

WILL BANKRUPT UNCLE SAM

Washington, May 20.—That the United States as a nation has gone wild in the matter of armaments and especially in the construction of battleships was asserted in practical concord by Senators Clay, Hale and Gallinger in the Senate today. These statements were made in connection with the consideration of the naval appropriation bill which occupied the attention of the Senate throughout the day. The bill carries $133,000,009 and Senator Hale predicted that within five years the annual naval appropriation would not be less than $175,000,000.

The opinion was expressed freely that the promised reduction of expenditures, would not take place during the present session of Congress and Senators Hale and Gallinger, both members of the Committee on Appropriations, united in the statement that for the next fiscal year the expenditures would exceed the revenues. Another feature of the debate was the citation of ex-President Roosevelt as an advocate of reduced armaments.

It was all brought about by an amendment introduced by Senator Burton providing for one battleship of the Dreadnaught type instead of the two authorized by the bill as passed by the House.

Mr. Clay was the first to assert that the country had gone wild in the matter of armaments.

"We have lost our heads," he said, "and if we do not stop we will bankrupt the nation."

Asserting that the appropriation for the navy proposed for the present year averaged $2 per head for each man, woman and child in the country, he said: "In the past 12 years Congress has passed laws authorizing 20 new battleships. We are now expending almost $140,000,000 a year as against $28,000,000 12 years ago. Apparently we haven't the courage to stop. We are gone wild—absolutely wild. In this day of high Christian civilization the nations are exhausting in these military expenditures the resources that ought to go to feeding the hungry. We ought to stop and think."

By quoting Senator Hale as authority for the statement that each of the proposed battleships would cost not less than $16,000,000 Mr. Clay aroused general interest. Mr. Gallinger advanced figures to show that the cost would not exceed $10,000,000.

Mr. Hale not only sustained Mr. Clay, but spoke of the vessels as completely armored and equipped, and said the total cost of putting one of these vessels in the water probably would be nearer $18,000,000 than $16,000,000. He declared that the fallibility of the naval board was such that there could be no guarantee for the future.

"That board never has been able to make a recommendation of type in these ships that has been good for two years in succession," he said.

Mr. Hale estimated that there would be a deficit at the end of the year.

Mr. Clay continuing, declared that one of the big battleships cost twice as much as the cost of governing the entire State of Georgia for a year.

Mr. Gallinger pointed out that there had been a substantial reduction this year in both the army and navy bills, but he also found that a deficit would be shown at the end of the year. While agreeing that the country had been running wild in the matter of the size of ships he expressed the opinion that the safest plan was to carry out the present programme for ship building. He thought the United States should have an adequate navy.

Mr. Burton's speech was in support of a diminution of military effort. He contended that in her civilization, isolation and resources the United States had ample protection. Consideration of the bill will be resumed tomorrow.

BISHOPS AGAINST NEW CHURCH NAME

Vetoed Measure Adopted at Methodist Conference Yesterday.

TWO NAMES WERE PROPOSED

Bishop Chandler Stated That Change Would Pave The Way to Litigation—Announcement Created Stir—New Bishops.

Asheville, N. C., May 20.—Some of the bishops presided for the first time since their ordination at today's sessions of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The debates on the question of the change of name took up the greater part of both the morning and afternoon sessions. Gray haired veterans pleaded that the name be kept as it is. Others thought that it was time to do away with sentiment and give the church a name which would be more acceptable to the congregations in the West. The measure adopted at this morning's session to name the church the Methodist church was vetoed at this afternoon's session by the College of Bishops. At the afternoon session the conference voted to change the name to the Methodist Episcopal Church in America and requested the bishops, as it is a constitutional question, to have annual conferences vote on the proposition. Not until the next General Conference can the name be legally changed if by a three-fourth vote of members of the annual conference they vote in favor of a change. It is being predicted tonight that the church at large will not accept the change and equally confident are the delegates, who favor the change, that the conferences will support them. Rev. H. M. DuBose, D. D., made one of the most ringing speeches in favor of the calling the church the Methodist Episcopal Church in America.

The afternoon session was presided over by Bishop R. G. Waterhouse. Bishop W. A. Candler, secretary of the College of Bishops, read the minutes of a session which the bishops held immediately after adjournment of the morning session stating that the college respectfully vetoed the measures adopted calling for the change of name of the church.

In explaining why the bishops vetoed the measure Bishop Candler stated that in their minds the change would involve titles and pave the way for litigation. This is the first time since 1894 that the bishops have exercised their right to veto.

The announcement that the bishops had vetoed the measure created a little stir.

Rev. R. F. Campbell, president of the North Carolina Lord's Day Alliance of the United States, briefly addressed the conference. The report recommending that $10,000 be appropriated for special articles in the Nashville Christian Advocate during the next four years was adopted. The report of the Committee on Missions Co-ordination the various departments heretofore separate was adopted. A resolution was adopted requesting the bishops to have annual conferences vote in the year 1913 whether or not the name of the church should be changed to the Methodist Episcopal Church in America.

An aye and nay vote was called for, the result of which was 150 for and 63 against.

Bishop Collins Denny, one of the newly elected member of the College of Bishops, presided at today's session. The usual devotional services were conducted by Dr. J. S. Simon, the British Wesleyan delegate.

The committee on education nominated the new board of education, and the committee on publishing interests, named the new publishing board, both of whom were elected by the conference. The name of Bishop E. E. Hoss was first on the board of education.

Rev. G. T. Detwiler, the conference host, was presented with a handsome cane by the delegates, and an invitation was read by the mayor of Asheville, asking the conference to return four years hence. Dr. Watkins, secretary of the conference, asked that a measure proposing to pay the secretaries for their services be withdrawn and it was granted.

Considerable discussion followed the recommendations made by the committee on revisal suggesting a change in the baptismal service for infants, but the report of the committee was favorably acted upon. The ritual of the church will contain several alterations.

Dr. Simon, fraternal delegate from England, took farewell of the conference.

CALHOUN HARRIS ACQUITTED.

Tried for Forgery and Breach of Trust.

Anderson, S. C., May 20.—Calhoun Harris was acquitted tonight in the Circuit Court here of charges of forgery and breech of trust resulting from an alleged shortage of $53,000 in Harris' accounts as secretary and assistant treasurer of the Orr Cotton Mills. The jury was out three hours. On the former hearing of the charges a mistrial resulted.

BIBLE CLASSES OF THE WORLD

Washington, May 20.—An army of more than 10,000 members of men's Bible classes from all parts of the world, marched down Pennsylvania Avenue late tonight and around the Capitol of the United States on their way to a monster mass meeting in Convention Hall. This was the feature of today's session of the World's Sunday School Association now in convention here. The broad steps on the east side of the Capitol were filled with thousands of women delegates to the convention and other Sunday School workers. Several heavy downpours of rain delayed the parade for almost an hour.

Pennsylvania Avenue never witnessed a more enthusiastic army than the "Soldiers of the Cross", which today tramped along its rain-washed path. The tune of "Onward Christian Soldiers" and other hymns they marched bearing banners inscribed with numerous Christian mottoes. At the Capitol, which they were nearly an hour in passing, they were greeted by the waving of thousands of fluttering handkerchiefs and the music of a girls' choir.

Practically every country in the world and every State of the Union was represented in the parade and the American, British, German and other flags of the nations floated on the breeze by the side of various Christian banners.

As Convention Hall was not large enough to accommodate the crowd of men, another meeting for men was held in Mount Vernon Methodist Episcopal church. Simultaneously two meetings for women were in progress at one of which Mrs. Sherman, wife of Vice President Sherman, of the United States, presided, at which short addresses on the evangelizing work being done in Siam, Turkey, India and Syria, were delivered by missionaries from those countries. Similar addresses were made at the other women's meeting.

At one of the day sessions, Rev. John Hillman, of London, outlined the Sunday School work of England, and Rev. Daniel Hayes, also of London, described the conditions in the slums of the British capital and on the banks of the Congo in Central Africa. The latter formerly a missionary in Africa, expressed his appreciation of the interest of the American nation in the people of the upper Congo, whom he declared to be victims of oppression and atrocities.

Rev. N. Tamura, of Japan, depicted the "Victories of the Gospel in Japan" and emphatically declared his country surely would be a Christian nation in due time. He made a plea for the Sunday school as the place offering the most fruitful result in Christianizing the people.

At one of the other day meetings T. H. Youn, a native Korean and president of the Anglo-Korean school, referred to the national condition of the Hermit Kingdam, its apparent subservience to Japan and declared that the evangelization of the kingdom was the only hope of relief from "fair promises and foul policies."

Rev. Erwin H. Richards, in charge of the work in East Africa, declared that dollars withheld in the United States for missionary work in the dark continent meant millions lost in commercial advantages which could only follow, he declared, "the preaching of the gospel and the civilization of the land."

EX-GOV. ROLLINS WAS FINED

Former New Hampshire Executive Paid $2,000 After Pleading Guilty to Smuggling in New York Yesterday.

New York, May 20.—Frank West Rollins, former Governor of New Hampshire, made his promised statement today, in answer to the charges of conspiracy to defraud the government of customs dues brought against him by customs inspectors last Friday. It took the form of a plea of guilty, and Judge Hand, sitting in the United States Circuit Court, construed it as an admission that Mr. Rollins had violated the law "knowingly, willfully and maliciously" and fined him $2,000.

The law provides a maximum penalty of two years in prison, a fine of $5,000, or both. The former Governor took a big roll of bills from his pocket and paid his fine without comment.

The total value of the articles which the former Governor neglected to declare is given as $4,736. The original complaint named Mrs. Rollins, his wife, and their son Douglas, as parties to the conspiracy, but the Federal grand jury today handed down but one indictment naming only the former Governor. As soon as Mr. Rollins learned of it, he promptly entered his plea, and when he had paid his fine, visited the customs house, where it is said he paid an additional $1,500 in duties, on the understanding that further proceedings against his family be dropped. The Rollinses arrived in New York from Europe on the Lusitania.

TEACHERS' TRAINING SCHOOL

Commencement Exercises at State Institution at Greenville Yesterday—Address by Governor Aycock—Exercises.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Greenville, N. C., May 20.—Today has been the first commencement day of the East Carolina Teachers' Training School and the orator has been ex-Governor Aycock. The commencement exercises began last evening when a music recital was given in the school auditorium by Miss Fannie May Bishop and Mr. Austin, of the school faculty, complimentary to the students and their friends. The programme today wasn't long but every feature was enjoyed.

At today's commencement, the phrase "Sweet Girl Graduate" couldn't be used, for there were no graduates. But the students, 172 in number, mostly young women, presented an attractive appearance when they marched into the auditorium singing "Ho, for Carolina." The singing began while the students were in the distance. There was a sound of sweet melody, but from whence it came could not be learned until the young ladies all dressed in white, put in their appearance. It was a scene beautiful to behold, and there was inspiration in the way the young people sang. After prayer by Rev. B. F. Huske, the students sang "America", and this was followed by a chorus, "Welcome Spring" and a gondolier's song. The speaker of the day was introduced in fitting words by President Robert H. Wright.

Governor Aycock began his speech by paying tribute to Governor Jarvis, which was received with applause by the large audience. The speaker said that he would make the same speech that he had made elsewhere, the same speech that he had been making all his life. It was a plea for universal education. Once it wasn't popular to talk about educating everybody and everything, but now the speaker said, everybody believed in educating everybody. Education was defined as bringing out the best that is in a man or thing. Use was made of homely illustrations in pressing home arguments for universal education. It was stated that education made man truthful; it gave him power to keep in reserve his powers until needed; it made him of service to his fellow man. Education that would cause a man or woman to attain unto something high, and then fail to pull other folks up to the same high standard was condemned. Mr. Aycock made a strong plea for universal education so that the world about might learn to appreciate the good things of life. There is no need of a great orator or a great musician if the world around is unable to appreciate song or speech.

In speaking of the need of educating the people that might appreciate the good things of life, the speaker told of a trip to the deaf and dumb institute. He created merriment by saying, "I made all kinds of speeches and at all kinds of places when I was Governor, for I liked to talk, and I almost talked myself to death, but 'Bob' Glenn came along and saved my reputation, and now I am a man of few words." At the deaf institute he thought he wouldn't have to make a speech, but he was called upon to talk, but couldn't get beyond, "Little children, I am so glad to be with you today."

Thousands of people in North Carolina have heard the speech that was made today but it grows better as the years go by. The speaker himself said it was the same speech he made before he was 21, but that it was more elaborate and better. Mr. Aycock was given an ovation when he began and when he concluded, and again it was proven that there is no man in the State whom the people would rather hear discuss educational topics. It is the same old story, but it grows sweeter and better with each telling.

At the conclusion of the address the young ladies sang, "I Know a Bank", and after some announcements by President Wright, the audience sang "Old North State", the benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. H. Shore, and the first commencement of the State's educational institution was brought to a close. The first year of the school has been a good one, the enrollment has been 172. The Summer session for teachers will begin next week, and already it has been found necessary to secure rooms for teachers in the city. Greenville and East Carolina are proud of the institution.

THE MODIFICATION OF ORGANIZATION

THE PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY

Changes in Organization of Southern Church Recommended by Committee—Complaint That Work is Confused.

Lewisburg, W. V., May 20.—A stubborn contest on the floor of the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church in session here, resulted from the attempt today to modify radically the business organization of the church. With the struggle at its height, hostilities were suspended until tomorrow.

The contest was precipitated by the ad interim committee and co-ordination of executive committees or boards bringing in a report. It was made the special order for the afternoon. The committee of which Dr. Bachman, the moderator, was chairman, recommended the reduction of the executive committee from six to four.

At the same time the committee recommended that the Assembly's standing committee on beneficences be made a permanent and more powerful organization. Another recommendation was for the reduction of Assembly collection from 19 to 8.

Scarcely had John S. Munce, of Baltimore, explained the report, before Secretary S. L. Morris, of the Home Mission Committee, was opposing the adoption of the consolidation of committees.

"There is a prejudice", said he, "which renders it exceedingly difficult to get money for colored evangelization in our church. Yet you make that department under the home mission committee and you do not allow us any more collections than we have now."

"I wouldn't let it scare you", interrupted Dr. James G. Snedecor, secretary of the present Colored Evangelization Committee. Dr. Morris responded with some heat that to persons who throw stones at him he would say that he was a teacher in a colored Sunday School before he became secretary of the home missions and was willing to continue work for colored people.

"The one weak spot in our church is home missions", he shouted, "and I don't want to see you lay a burden upon it."

"Many persons in our church do not like to give to missions if they know it is for colored work."

Dr. W. E. Boggs, secretary of the committee on schools and colleges, protested against that work being put under a committee named "ministerial education and relief committee" but entreated that the name be Christian education and ministerial relief.

Upon a protest of Dr. C. B. Nesbet, of Nashville, Tenn., and Dr. J. H. Patton, of Marietta, Ga., the Assembly voted to permit the general evangelistic works of the Assembly to remain in its present status inasmuch as it had no separate collection and was not under an executive committee. The co-ordination committee desired to put it under home missions.

Dr. Russell Cecil, of Richmond, Va., expressed a fear that the Assembly's home and school at Fredericksburg, Va., for the care of the children, of missionaries, would not be looked after as tenderly by the executive committee on ministerial education and relief as by its present board of trustees.

Judge John Stiles, of Louisville, Ky., told the Assembly that the people were disgusted with so many collections and something must be done to put the work of the church on a business basis. Dr. R. O. Flinn, of Atlanta, Ga., argued that a man to man canvass for the beneficence fund would bring to the church all the funds necessary.

Some embarrassment was caused the Assembly body by the receipt of an overture from New Orleans asking if the Assembly adhered to its objection to women addressing mixed gatherings. The overture was referred to a committee.

Tonight the Assembly listened to addresses on college work.

Lewisburg, W. Va., May 20.—Almost revolutionary changes in the organization of the Southern Presbyterian Church were recommended this afternoon to the General Assembly of that

JEFFRIES' BUSY DAY.

Went to Work With a Vengeance Yesterday—Boxing.

Ben Lomond, Cal., May 20.—With two days of loafing behind him James J. Jeffries went back to work today with a vengeance. Before noon he had done enough hard labor to make up for lost time.

Jeffries boxed eight rounds this morning, three each with Armstrong and Choynski and two with his brother Jack. The air was chilly and the big athlete did not warm up until two rounds had passed. The final round with Armstrong was fast and in the second of the bout with Choynski the veteran nearly took the count. Joe emerged from the fray with a discolored eye.

In his bout with his brother Jack, Jeffries took it gently as he did not wish to rough it too much until Jack was in better trim. The morning work wound up with three rounds of rough wrestling with Farmer Burns.

SAILORS AGAIN VICTORIOUS

Defeated the Columbia Mechanics by Score of 3 to 0 in a Splendid Game —Last of Series This Afternoon—Crowds.

It was not a walkover yesterday by any means for the locals, the Mechanics putting up a very different game from their first exhibition, but the visitors could only connect with the twisters of Foltz and Ebinger, who allowed only two hits, the result being another zero mark for the South Carolinians while the Tar Heels made three runs. The attendance upon the exhibition games has not been what was expected and desired, and the fans are missing some good games.

The Mechanics is not, as many supbe pretty well matched, but in the fifth, High, who did the twirling for the visitors, weakened and allowed two runs, and in the seventh another score was added. High pitched a good game, however, and with better support the score would have been even smaller than it was. Foltz, the youngster from Florida, showed up in fine style and was a perfect puzzle to the boys from the Palmetto State, but he was no more so than Ebinger, who did not allow a single hit. Foltz pitched six innings, yielding two hits and fanning four while Ebinger worked three innings and allowed no hits and struck out two. While it is true that the Mechanics were able to find Ebinger it only served the purpose of furnishing good practice for the fielders. Ebinger went in at the beginning of the seventh inning and the first time to the bat drove out a two-bagger. Hyames also sent a beauty to centerfield and skipped around to second. No player on the team made a better impression than Tydeman, who got two hits and was able to find the sphere every time.

The Mechanics are said to have a pitcher who can fool the best of them, but he has certainly not been produced so far, and he will have to be some pitcher if he can prevent the aggregation of Sailors from lining out a few.

This afternoon the last of the series of games will be played with the Columbia team and it will, in all probability, be a close contest.

The Sailor crew as a whole is showing up to the entire satisfaction of the management and from present indications very few changes will be required. The team will leave Monday morning for Wilson to play the opening games of the league season and it is hoped that a large number of fans will go along. The Coast Line has made a special round-trip rate, and has promised ample facilities for handling the crowd on this occasion.

Hyames is the Komet Kid when it comes to base running.

If they begin crying, give them the third, but make 'em cry first.

No use getting nervous at all. We're going to keep it up all season.

Burke, that brand will get you something yet, if anyone should ask.

None of this stuff is enthusiasm. Its just a positive fact, Mr. B. B. Fan.

The way Hyames and Burke did the stunt yesterday reminds the bugs of the season of '08, when "Little Jayes" and Rath were the bright particular stars around second station.

'FRISCO PLACE FOR FIGHT

District Attorney Declares There Are No Legal Grounds for Interference —Promoters Pleased—Decision Yesterday.

San Francisco, May 20.—The attitude of the law officers of San Francisco toward the Jeffries-Johnson fight was definitely settled today by District Attorney Fickert, who declared that there was no legal grounds for interference.

"If the contestants comply with the provisions of the code and the ordinance," he said, "it is not within my power, the power of the police department or of the sheriff to prohibit the fight. I have read the articles of agreement between Jeffries and Johnson and they are in all respects with in the statutes.

"It is impossible for me to predetermine whether there will be a violation of the statute. If during the fight, the principles or their representatives violate the law they will be punished."

While in consultation with Chief of Police Martin on the policing of the big fight, Tex Rickard was informed of the decision of the district attorney. He expressed himself as delighted and said the promoters would begin detailed preparation for the contest immediately.

The decision was given in reply to a request of the church federation that he take steps to prevent the fight

THE DAY IN CONGRESS

May Authorize Only One Dreadnaught. Other Bills.

Washington, May 20—Whether there shall be authorized by the present Congress two or only one great battleship of the Dreadnaught type was the subject of a long discussion in the Senate today while the Naval Appropriation bill was under consideration. The principal speakers were Senators Clay, Hale, Gallinger and Burton.

It was brought out during the debate that the revenues for the present fiscal year probably would not equal the expenditures and that there would be an increased deficit. This statement was made by Mr. Hale and he used it as an argument in favor of reduced armament. Former President Roosevelt was quoted as now being in favor of a diminution of armament.

The tariff, shipsubsidy, a lively disputation between Messrs. Ames, of Massachusetts and Payne, of New York, both Republicans, over Canadian tariff relations, and an arraignment of some of his Republican colleagues by Mr. Fish, of New York, occupied today's session of the House.

Messrs. McKinley, of California, and Diekema, of Michigan, Republicans, advocated the proposed $250,000 appropriation for enlarging the scope of the tariff board ascertainment of tariff information. Mr. Havens, of New York, Democrat also favored this appropriation and indicated that he would not be a candidate for re-election. Mr. Thomas, of Kentucky, made a humorous attack on republicanism and the tariff. Mr. Humphrey, of Was...ngton, pleaded for support from both parties in behalf of the ship subsidy bill.

Mr. Ames attacked Mr. Payne for refusing courteous consideration of his efforts for his adjusting the tariff situation between the United States and Canada. Mr. Payne, who is chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, replied that he adhered to his conviction that the tariff question should not be reopened this session.

TRIAL OF HEIKE RESUMED.

New York, May 20.—Further important revelations by government witnesses were looked for today with the resumption of the trial of James R. Heike, secretary of the American Sugar Refining Company, on sugar under-weighing conspiracy charges, following yesterday's sensational developments, which held a crowded court room spellbound and amazed everybody by the new features of the alleged widespread cheating conspiracy laid bare.

Counsel for the defendants, who include beside Heike, five former employes of the company, were visibly taken aback by Frederick Schwerdtferger's testimony yesterday as he related how each of several weighers he named had been supplied with a steel wire to be used as a spring for retarding action of the scales and bringing about underweights through which the government was defrauded out of millions of dollars in duties.

GOING OVER BATTLEFIELDS.

Secretary Dickinson and Party of Officers in Virginia.

Washington, May 20.—Secretary Dickinson left Washington this evening for Savage Station, Va., where he will join the officers attached to the war college now on a tour of instruction through the Virginia battlefields of the Civil War. The Secretary will tomorrow go with the party over the battlefields of Savage Station and of Seven Pines and on Sunday will ride to Malvern Hill, a distance of 12 miles, thence to White Oak Swamp and Frazier's Farm.

The student officers will be accompanied by other officers specially designated for the purpose of explaining the movements of the troops in each of those engagements, thus giving them by actual observation a thorough knowledge of conditions that prevailed at the time of the battle.

Secretary Dickinson is expected to return to Washington about next Tuesday, the remainder of the party returning the following Thursday.

GIVE AWAY GUNS.

Obsolete Pieces May be Had by Municipalities on Request.

Washington, May 20.—In answer to many inquiries the War Department has issued a statement to the effect that municipalities desiring obsolete field pieces for ornamental purposes may obtain them upon formal application to the Department through a Senator or a Representative, first securing the gun's condemnation. The gun carriages cannot be given away but may be purchased after condemnation, the average price being about $10.

BAKER KILLED KINSMAN

Shot His Brother-in-Law to Death and Wounded Wife.

New Orleans, May 20.—Louis Werner, a baker, tonight killed his brother-in-law, Thomas Morgan, perhaps fatally wounded his life and then seized his 2-year-old daughter and carried her to the house of a relative here. He surrendered and a charge of murder was lodged against him.

Werner and his wife recently separated and on petition of the latter, Werner was a week ago placed under peace bond. Tonight he met her and his child near the home of Mrs. Werner's mother. An altercation, it is said followed, and the brother of Mrs. Werner was attracted to the scene. The shooting then took place. Werner claims that he was threatened by Morgan.

DAY'S DOINGS AT ROCKY MOUNT

Imperial Factories Close in Honor of King Edward—Near-Beer Situation in Railroad Town—Death of Young Man.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., May 20.—The management of the Imperial Tobacco Co., in this city, received notice that all of this company's holdings over the world would be closed today in respect to England's dead King who was buried from Windsor Castle this morning. Their mammoth plant in this city was closed and all of the factories over Eastern Carolina of which there is a possible half dozen, were closed.

Charged with having disposed of goods that were stolen, John Nedius was yesterday afternoon found guilty in a magistrate's court and sent to Tarboro jail today. Nedius is a young Syrian and from what could be learned the theft was from another member of his nationality. He was sent up to Edgecombe county court under a bond of $200 which he could not give.

Near-beer dealers in Rocky Mount must dig deep into their jeans for their license tax this year according to the decision of the Board of Aldermen at their meeting last night. Those places of business that handle the beverage must on June 1st shell out $500, and then the entire board of aldermen of the city will have a say so in the issuing of licenses and the good character of the dealer, and the order maintained in the past will cut some ice as to whether or not the dealer's money will be taken and he may open a place. This tax is just exactly half what the tax on the open bar was, when they operated in this city, while the regulation of the securing and revoking the license is exactly the same.

This change was deemed advisable by the City Fathers because of the trouble that other neighboring cities have undergone with this licensed traffic, and it is thought that this may be avoided here by the high license and a strict regulation of the business under a penalty of forfeiture of license and a closing of the business if trouble arises. The motion for the increase in tax was made at a previous meeting. However the vote on the same was left over until last night. The motion passed without a single dissenting vote.

After all hope had been despaired of for two days by the physicians and nurses, Mr. Paul Whitaker, a young man of this city, died last night in the Wilson Sanitorium. The young man was taken to Wilson about two weeks ago and was shortly thereafter operated upon for appendicitis. He was rapidly improving from this operation, but complications set in and all hopes for his life had been despaired of since Tuesday.

Mr. Whitaker was 21 years old and a graduate of Warrenton High School. His father is Dr. H. H. Whitaker, of Hilliardston, in Nash county, and well known over this section of the State. Since his graduation two years ago, Mr. Whitaker had been in the employ of the Southern Express Co., having risen to the position of transfer clerk at their office in this city, which position he was holding at the time he became ill.

COUNTRY BANKERS MEET.

Sessions at Rockingham Largely Attended—An Outing

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rockingham, May 20.—The fourth annual convention of the Country Bankers' Association convened here last night in the Odd Fellows' hall at 9:30 o'clock with President L. S. Covington, of the Farmers' bank of Rockingham, presiding.

The convention was opened with prayer by Rev. J. M. Forbis, after which Mayor W. N. Everett, in a happy speech welcomed the convention to Rockingham. The response was made by George B. McLeod, president of the Bank of Lumberton. Some sixty or more delegates were present, representing banks in various sections of the State. The roll of delegates was called and many of those present responded with short and witty speeches.

President Covington announced the committees, which will report later.

This concluded the business of the evening and the convention adjourned to the Rockingham, where a reception and a banquet was held complimentary to delegates and visitors. President Charles N. Evans, of the Southern National Bank, of Wilmington, and also president of a half score of banks in eastern Carolina, presided over the festive board as toastmaster and this happy occasion was prolonged into the small hours.

The programme today consisted of an automobile drive to Ellerbe Springs at 9 o'clock, a distance of 12 miles. Returning to town the convention attended a reception and lawn party at the home of the Misses Covington at 9 o'clock.

Many delegates were delayed and reached here today. Among those present are the following: R. E. Bolling, First National Bank of Baltimore; W. F. Augustine, Merchants' National Bank of Richmond; Hinton James, Scotland County Savings Bank of Laurinburg; W. M. Morton, Southern Savings Bank of Wadesboro; James H. MacRae, Fourth National Bank of Fayetteville; E. B. Daniel, Bank of Parkton; A. J. Garris, Bank of Parkton; O. C. Spaulding, Bank of Robeson, Maxton; George B. McLeod, First National Bank of Lumberton; L. B. Fleming, Hope Mills; L. L. Parker, Pageland; W. S. Blakeley, Bank of Union, Monroe; S. A. Johnson, First National Bank of Durham; L. C. Evans, Lumberton, and C. N. Evans, Southern National Bank of Wilmington; T. R. Troutman, Bank of Polkton; W. Lacy Williams, Bank of Maxton. There are also present many visitors representing the various industries with which bankers have to deal, notably, the lithographing and printing concerns, adding machines and others.

AFFAIRS AT STATE CAPITAL

Great Interest in State Highways—Meredith College Commencement—May 20th Observed. Red Men Feast.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 20.—State Geologist Joseph Hyde Pratt, here conferring with a number of the State officers, says that State Road Engineer W. L. Spoon has just taken up the work of survey for the Charlotte-Asheville Highway, and that it is the purpose when the survey reaches Bear Wallow May 28th, to hold a special convention of business men and farmers interested in this highway to consider especially the matter of building six miles of road through Hickory Nut Gap, a stretch of road that it is estimated will cost something like $25,000.

A large part of this will have to be raised through public subscription as the townships or county involved could not assume the burden. This Charlotte-Asheville highway is to traverse Mecklenburg, Gaston, Cleveland, Henderson and Buncombe counties.

Dr. Pratt says that all arrangements are now made for the survey of the Altapass-Linville and the Linville-Asheville highways, a party of ten men, surveyors and workmen, to get busy on this preliminary work at this time. This will comprise 62 miles of ridge road through the most beautiful mountain region and will ultimately be pushed on to Roanoke, Va.

Saturday the commencement of Meredith College begins with "Inter-Society Evening". This will be followed Sunday with the baccalaureate sermon by Dr. O. P. Gifford, of Brookline, Mass.; the missionary sermon Sunday night by Dr. S. W. Melton, of Norfolk, Va.; Class Day exercises and other special features will follow on Monday with the graduating exercises on Tuesday by Dr. Gifford, when diplomas will be awarded to 28 graduates, the largest class in the history of the college.

Red Men from Wake Forest, Henderson and Rocky Mount are here tonight to take part in a smoker by the local tribe of Improved Order of Red Men in connection of which there will be a demonstration of the degree work by the special team of the Raleigh Tribe.

The Southern National Bank, C. N. Evans, president, should have been included in the mention of the Wilmington bidders for blocks of the three and a half million dollars 40-year 4 per cent. refunding bonds being issued by the State when bids were opened Wednesday.

A report comes from Superintendent C. W. Massey, of Durham county, that he has just succeeded in carrying another rural school district for local tax to improve the schools.

The State offices were all closed today in honor of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence of which this is the 135th anniversary.

The Raleigh public schools closed with appropriate exercises last night, certificates of graduation being awarded to 13 students, five of them being young men. The address was by Attorney General T. W. Bickett. It was announced that the total enrollment this year was 220 greater than the year previous, the high school enrollment having increased from 209 to 247.

VEGETABLES FROM ROCKY POINT

Solid Car of Beans and One of Irish Potatoes Yesterday.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., May 20.—Two solid cars of beans and one solid car of Irish potatoes were shipped from here today to S. B. Downes & Co., of New York, by J. R. Phillips, of the firm. The first cars shipped from North Carolina this season, Greater Rocky Point is again in the lead—first crate of ripe berries, first car berries, first car shipments of beans and potatoes.

The sensation belongs exclusively to Rocky Point of experiencing the only original comet, earthquake thus far reported on the morning of the 19th about 3:30 A. M. A loud, roaring noise, accompanied by meteoric showers in the northeast heavens preceded a seismic disturbance that was not quite violent enough to wake up sleepers but was sufficient to cause a perceptible tremor to buildings and cause the roosters to crow. Fine shower this A. M. Vegetables growing rapidly. Corn being laid by, last plowing. First picking of beans winds up crop; affected by drought.

FIRE AT NEWBERN.

Greek Establishment Badly Damaged Yesterday Morning.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., May 20.—At 9 o'clock this morning the wooden building on Broad street, owned by George Eubanks, was found to be on fire. The fire originated in the store of a Greek named Joe Thomas, and his stock was badly damaged by fire and water as was that of the fruit store of J. D. Barfield adjoining. The loss on the building is about $500, while fire and water did that much damage to stock. The Atlantic Fire Company's building, adjoining, was damaged by water slightly. Loss on building covered by insurance.

J. HICKS BUNTING DRUG CO'S. NEW DEPARTURE.

After two months of remarkable sales, J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., the enterprising druggists, say that their plan of selling at half price the regular 50 cent size of Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia, and guaranteeing to refund the money if it does not cure, has been the greatest success they have ever known.

They have sold hundreds of bottles of the specific; and as yet have not had one returned, although they stand ready at any time to refund the money should any customer be dissatisfied.

Anyone suffering with dyspepsia, constipation, liver troubles, headaches, dizziness, coated tongue, or the general tired feeling caused by inactive liver and bowels or disordered digestion, should take advantage of J. Hicks Bunting's new departure.

GEORGIANS LYNCH NEGRO.

Attempted Assault on Little Girl Near Albany.

Albany, Ga., May 20.—Because he attempted to criminally assault the eight-year-old daughter of Harry Tison, residing in the western part of Baker county, Charlie Wilson, a negro boy of about 18 years, was lynched at a late hour last night by a mob of citizens, who took the negro by force from a bailiff before he could be landed in jail at Newton.

Wilson attempted to assault the Tison child Thursday afternoon, but her screams were heard by her father, who caught the negro and turned him over to an officer.

Wilson was hanged from a tree standing near a much traveled road and his body was riddled with bullets. Negroes of the community showed little concern over the lynching.

NATIONAL CREDIT MEN.

Concluded Annual Convention With Re-election of Officers.

New Orleans, May 20.—The National Credit Men's Association concluded its annual convention here late today with the re-election of W. H. McAdow, of Chicago, as president, and Charles E. Meek, secretary-treasurer. The selection of the next meeting place was left to the board of directors.

Shortly before adjournment a resolution was adopted declaring against a parcels post system. It was declared that such a law would be inimical to the best interests of retail merchants.

ROOSEVELT FOR LEADER.

Mentioned for Naval Military Order Yesterday.

New York, May 20.—Theodore Roosevelt was mentioned today as a likely candidate for Commander-in-Chief of the Naval and Military Order of the Spanish-American war, whose first meeting will be held in New York tomorrow. Rear Admiral Oscar W. Farenholt, of San Francisco, is commander-in-chief at present.

The order was founded in 1899. Its membership is confined to commissioned officers in the army and navy, the marine corps and the revenue cutter service, who served in the war with Spain.

COMET MINUS A TAIL.

Was Visible in the West Last Night. Phenomenon.

Yerkes Observatory, Williams Bay, Wis., May 20.—Halley's comet, minus a tail was under observation in the west from 7:40 to 8:35 o'clock tonight. Astronomers first observed it through a four-inch telescope at 7:40. At 8:10 o'clock the phenomenon was visible to the naked eye and remained so until it became lost behind the cloud bank at 8:35. It disappeared below the western horizon at 9 o'clock.

75,000 MINERS STRIKE.

Affects the State of Illinois—Fund to Provide for Them.

Peoria, Ill., May 20.—The strike affects the entire State of Illinois and involves nearly 75,000 men, who have been idle since April 1st. The miners' strike fund is said to amount to $750,000. While the miners already have been idle for 50 days, this fund has not been drawn on.

New York, May 20.—A full agreement between the Erie Railroad and its conductors and trainmen on an advanced schedule of wages was reached here tonight at a conference between Vice President J. C. Stuart, of the railroad, and representatives of the employes.

Roanoke, Va., May 20.—A freight train on the Virginian Railway ran into a slide 40 miles west of Roanoke today and was wrecked. Fireman Charles Eaton, of Page, W. Va., was killed.

Roanoke, Va., May 20.—The strike of Norfolk & Western Railway clerks which was ordered last Tuesday, was called off today. Most of the men will get their old positions again.

OLD LADY'S SAGE ADVICE

Knoxville Lady Tells How She Tried Advice of Her Neighbor and Experienced Great Improvement.

Knoxville, Tenn.—"If you had seen me before I began to take Cardui, you would not think I was the same person", writes Mrs. Mamie Towe, of 102 W. Main St., this city.

"Six doctors failed to do me good, and my friends thought I would die, I could hardly get out of bed or walk a step.

At last an old lady advised me to take Cardui, and now I can go most anywhere.

The secret of lasting health is: anywhere."

If a clock does not tick regularly and evenly, it is out of order and soon wears out, or runs down. If all your functions are not regular and natural, you will soon wear out, and get old and run down.

All ailing women need Cardui, as a gentle refreshing tonic, and beneficial, curative medicine, especially adapted to their peculiar ailments.

It is a reliable vegetable remedy, for most all womanly ills.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of Cardui during the past 50 years, in the relief and cure of ailments peculiar to women.

It removes the cause and builds up the strength.

Try Cardui.

Cook in Comfort

You no longer need wear yourself out with the weakening heat of an intensely hot kitchen. You can cook in comfort.

Here is a stove that gives no outside heat. All its heat is concentrated at the burners. An intense blue flame (hotter than either white or red) is thrown upwards but not around. All the heat is utilized in cooking — none in outside heating.

New Perfection
WICK BLUE FLAME

entirely removes the discomfort of cooking. Apply a match and immediately the stove is ready. Instantly an intense heat is projected upwards against the pot, pan, kettle or boiler, and yet there is no surrounding heat—no smell—no smoke.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

Why? Because The New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove is scientifically and practically perfect. You cannot use too much wick—it is automatically controlled. You get the maximum heat—no smoke. The burner is simple. One wipe with a cloth cleans it—consequently there is no smell.

The New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove is wonderful for year-round use, but especially in summer. Its heat operates upward to pan, pot, or kettle, but not beyond or around. It is useless for heating a room.

It has a Cabinet Top with shelf for keeping plates and food hot.

It has long turquoise-blue enamel chimneys. The nickel finish, with the bright blue of the chimneys, makes the stove ornamental and attractive. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY (Inc.) Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under act of Congress, March 2nd 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

The MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.25 for three months, 50 cents for one month, served by carrier in the city or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards or thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms No. 61. Call either if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will be invariably rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication but as a guarantee of good faith.

Saturday, May 21st, 1910.

The comet's tail is like a tale that is told. There is very little in it.

Monday night there will be a total eclipse of the moon, beginning at 11:49 P. M.

An indication that the comet meant no harm is that the celestial vagrant passed on its way without giving the cartoonists a swipe.

The esteemed Atlanta Constitution warns President Taft that he should be "judicially isolated from all lures or snares." All of us should also "judicially isolate."

Dr. Wylie, the government food expert, should have had Halley's comet held up because of its cyanogen gas. Anything like that might interfere with a man's appetite.

"Back to the farm" is the slogan which comes to us from Secretary Wilson, of the Agricultural Department. Land sakes! He ought to be able to see that most of us already have our back to the farm.

Secretary Nagel expects to take a trip to Alaska. Probably he has taken the precaution to get a permit from the land syndicate which has euchered Uncle Sam out of that part of the country.

The "regular" Republicans in Congress have proposed to make concessions to the Democrats if they will aid them in the passage of the administration railroad bill. These overtures mean that the regulars are being forced to come just a little closer to the people.

The Colonel has now seen just about all the Emperors and Kings of Europe. If he told them all that he thinks he knows, look out for potentates who are going to "do something". Perhaps the reason why Richard wanted to swap his Kingdom for a horse is that he desired to have some of his advisers kicked.

The Charlotte Observer came to us on Thursday in a form that was both pretentious and attractive. It was our esteemed and enterprising contemporary's "North Carolina Industrial Edition" and it was with keen interest and well rewarded effort that we scanned its 36 pages of entertaining and valuable matter. They were profusely illustrated pages and in print and picture there was a striking portrayal of Charlotte's splendid achievements, substantial progress and great possibilities.

Says the Raleigh Evening Times: "The only hope for the Republican party this Fall is to fool the people into believing that the new law has reduced the tariff duties and that they favor and will continue to favor reduction." This enables us to observe that the Republican party takes the people for fools. Every time the country goes Republican it demonstrates that the voters are just what the Republican party takes them to be—unless the trusts' campaign fund is more than they could stand.

Vice President Sherman declares that a majority for the Republican party this Fall would mean an endorsement of the tariff laws, but a Democratic majority would signify its condemnation. We don't know so much about that. If the voters go to the polls and vote their honest convictions there might be a great deal of truth in it, but if the trusts finance the Republican campaign, according to custom, and adherence to habit, a Republican majority would mean that a large part of the oyters think more of Republican campaign lucre than they do of the Republican tariff. Furthermore, Selah, and also "ain't it so?"

A DEMOCRATIC REPUBLICAN.

There is considerable marvel in the country over the singular situation which has arisen over the nomination of former Mayor Samuel S. McNinch, of Charlotte, as the candidate of the Republican party in the Ninth Congressional District of North Carolina. The Congressional convention nominated Mr. McNinch without much opposition and there is considerable speculation whether or not he will accept the nomination and make the race.

The singular part about it is that Mr. McNinch passes as a Democrat but having once met President Roosevelt he got balled up in his politics and thenceforth was recognized as a Roosevelt Democrat. We remember when Charlotte's Mayor (at that time) went wrong on the Rough Rider and we then gave him up as lost to his former party. On account of his subsequent attitude toward his old party and his decided leaning toward the Republican party, we inferred that he had become a full fledged Republican without announcing it from the housetops. Several months ago we heard of his seeking the Republican nomination for Congress and subsequently came a rumor that he had backed down and hardly knew where he was at, in the parlance of the Hon. Tom Watson, of Georgia.

Our impression now is that Mr. McNinch at first felt the pulse of the Republican party in the Ninth District and having found that it was beating in his direction, decided to trust his further aspirations to a still hunt. Most likely that is the case, and here goes a prediction that Charlotte's former Democratic mayor has burned his Democratic ships behind him and will accept that Republican nomination. The Republican Congressional convention was held at Shelby on Wednesday and instead of nominating some of the faithful and always ambitious Republicans of long standing, the honor was offered to Mr. McNinch. We rather think that the programme was cut and dried and that Mr. McNinch will oppose the Democratic nominee who will be present Congressman Edwin Yates Webb.

Mr. Webb has ably and acceptably represented his district and while Mr. MsNinch may be a good man we hardly think the Ninth would swap a true and tried man for even a Roosevelt Democrat or a Democratic Republican or a full-fledged Republican, it matters not which. The main purpose we had in calling up this matter was to express the belief that Mr. McNinch has gradually changed his politics and is a "goner."

NO PUBLICITY FOR CORRUPTIONISTS.

Some Congressman has introduced another bill in Congress to provide publicity for campaign contributions and expenditures. If the Republican majority had been in favor of publicity they would have had an effective law on the statute books long ago. Whenever you see a Republican Congress passing any such law you may rest assured that the Democrats are getting campaign money enough to get in the corruption game with the G. O. P.

As long as there is no effective publicity law, you can also rest assured that the Republican party's corruptionists do not want any and that they are afraid to furnish the Republic with a law that will tend to prevent the debauchment of the elections of this country. Righteous indignation and a public demand that will not tolerate the indifference of a Republican Congress toward the problem of purifying our elections, may some day result in an act that will aim at preventing the purchase of elections.

GROW MORE TO THE ACRE.

President Roosevelt in his letter appointing that Country Life Commission, said: "The farmer must, first of all, grow good crops in order to support himself and family." We just want to inquire if the farmers have got done laughing at being gravely advised to do what they had been scuffling at ever since Eve's appetite for fruit made it necessary for man to go to digging for a living. The bucolic editor of the Star wants to know how to make one acre produce more than it does with the same amount of labor, and along that line he is committed to Col. Graham, chief of the North Carolina Agricultural Department, and to Col. Wilson, who boss the agricultural propaganda at Washington. They are onto their jobs and they will show you instead of tell you how.

The Philadelphia Public Ledger (Ind.) says: "Democratic hope of controlling the next House is based more upon Republican division than upon Democratic concentration." Don't forget to mention also that the chances for winning will be better if we steer clear of new alleged "paramount issues" upon which it is impossible to educate voters in a brief campaign. The stump is a poor schoolhouse in which to teach old dogs new tricks.

The big crowd of cotton manufacturers who have been holding a meeting in Charlotte have taken their departure. Charlotte people, however, are still in possession of the yarns they spun while they were there.

BURGAW IS COMING.

A spirit of progressiveness has taken hold of Burgaw, and upon that evidence it is safe to base a prediction that the county seat of Pender is coming to the front. Recently the citizens of Burgaw organized for progressive work, and their organization manifested its liveness and earnestness by the manner in which it received and entertained the Northern and Canadian capitalists who recently came down to spy out the rich acres of Angola Bay. They did the courteous act in a style that must have impressed their guests, and if they persevere in work like that in behalf of their town results are bound to reward their efforts.

The forward movement in Burgaw is further manifested in the largely attended meeting of the ladies of the town on Thursday afternoon when a Civic League was organized. A spirit of enthusiasm was stirred up by Mrs. R. W. Hicks, a gifted Wilmington lady, who ably and impressively presented the importance and usefulness of the civic improvement movement. The Burgaw ladies took hold of the movement with a spirit and determination that is going to make a great change for the better in Burgaw.

A town which has erected ten handsome stores within twelve months that is building neat homes, and that is to slick up and beautify, is already in the march of progress. There is decided improvement in the agricultural and trucking interests around Burgaw, and as the town is in a fertile county capable of a splendid development, there is no reason why homeseekers should not be attracted to a community that is up and doing and to a county abounding in fine lands and splendid opportunities. A clever, hospitable and enterprising people, with the spirit of the times moving them, are bent on seeing to it that Burgaw and Pender county shall keep up with the procession.

Wilmington is going to do everything that can be done to give the editors a good time when the State Press Association meets at Wrightsville Beach next month. There be intimation from certain quarters that some of the editors are going to be exacting—for instance, here comes the Charlotte Evening News, speaking for itself and the Salisbury Post, serving notice that they "will be on hand with a pair of thirsts that have remained normal through many years of bitter disappointment." Wilmington will treat the editors in a way that they need not necessarily leave here with the dry grins.

The pie counter and the factional row are reputed to be the long suit of the Republicans but the Democrats in some sections of North Carolina and other States are showing signs of wanting to trump the trick.

"Don't beat your mule" writes a farmer. If you do, place yourself on the port side but never at the rudder, for there is no telling when a mule's animosity and malice might cause him to kick against cruelty.

Probably a woman stenographer would have kept Ballinger's secret better than Kerby. At any rate a man stenographer let the cat out of the bag just about as quick as a woman.

A New York woman is suing for divorce because her husband sleeps with his shoes on. Perhaps the poor fellow kept them on because he hal a hard road to travel.

The Filipinos are anxious to be independent. Same here, but public sentiment wouldn't stand for it unless it is carefully consulted.

"Ballinger fired Kerby", remarks the Charleston News and Courier. Well Kerby got fired because the son of a gun was loaded.

The astronomers discoevred spots on the sun. More work for the Whitewash Department at Washington.

Some people who take themselves too seriously are apt to want to take other people at a discount.

Plymouth Rock is a myth, says a Harvard professor. Nobody believes in a thing that quits laying eggs when eggs are needed.—Cleveland Leader.

Danville is going to make hay while the sun shines. The saloons must pay $2,500 a year license. Inasmuch as about 25 or 30 men want to get in, looks like Danville could run her schools all right for the next two years at least. Will the saloons make any money at this figure? You bet! Water is cheap and the river Daniel is close by.—Greensboro Record.

The news from the primary election in Wilmington yesterday is to the effect that Recorder Furlong has received the endorsement of the people of that city by a large majority. The result cannot be viewed in any other light than as a ratification of his administration. It was charged against him that he did not do his duty in the matter of enforcing the prohibition laws and in prosecuting the blind tigers and the fight on him was bitter, vigorous and unrelenting, so much so, that perhaps it caused a reversion of sympathy in his favor. At any rate, the election was by no means as close as the public had been led to expect it would be.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Former Mayor McNinch, a very estimable gentleman, has gone the way all go when they begin to qualify their party preference. Mr. McNinch was for years a Democratic leader in Mecklenburg, served Charlotte most acceptably as mayor and later worked in the ranks of his party with enthusiasm. One day he pronounced himself a Roosevelt Democrat (whatever that is) and from that day he has been headed at a Halley comet rate for the Republican camp. Yesterday the G. O. P. took him into full membership and nominated him to oppose Congressman Webb, a doubtful compliment and, as Mr. McNinch will discover when the ides of November roll around, an empty honor.—Salisbury Post.

Improved methods are the order of the day. Having emerged from an era of poverty, with plenty of money to spend, the elimination of two-by-four business methods in the South has been largely effected. Better and more improved machinery is employed on the farm. More sanitary, and commodious school houses have been built and more money spent to lengthen schools. Mercantile establishments are larger and more up-to-date. Factories are built on a bigger scale. The day of big things is upon us. And nowhere is this material expansion more clearly demonstrated than in the realm of the South's greatest industry—cotton manufacturing. Not only is there a tendency to diversify in manufacture, as in crops, but there is a growing tendency to construct larger mills. One mill in the South today is equipped with 230,000 spindles and 7,500 looms.—Charlotte Eevning News.

The last of the 20,000 edition of The Sketches of Charlotte have been distributed. This work has been done partly at the expense of the publisher, but mainly through the Greater Charlotte Club. The books have gone to every State and Teritory in the Union. Requests for copies have come from Canada and Europe and these quests have been complied with. The industrial department of the Seaboard Air Line made effective use of 1,000 copies and wanted more. By reason of the fact that the board of aldermen, for the first time since 1888, could not see its way to give any aid whatsoever, to the Sketches, the publisher is left with a pretty good-sized bag to hold, but undaunted, he is now engaged in clearing up matters and arranging for a new edition that he can promise will be the best of all—for Charlotte must be advertised, if even at the expense of the advertiser's pocket book. The next edition of the Sketches will come out in the Fall and will be a unique publication in the way of city and county advertising.—Charlotte Chronicle.

FAYETTEVILLE HIGH SCHOOL.

Annual Address Delivered by Bishop Strange—Other Items of Interest.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Fayetteville, May 19.—The class day and closing exercises of the Fayetteville High School were held in the LaFayette Theatre Tuesday.

The annual address was made by Bishop Robert Strange, of Wilmington. It was characteristically eloquent, learned and forceful. Bishop Strange was introduced to the audience by Major E. J. Hale.

The diplomas were presented by Mr. John A. Oates, chairman of the Cumberland County Board of Education. Mr. Oates also read a resolution passed by the trustees of the city graded school, favoring a bond issue for the erection of a new school building.

The students' part in the programme was particularly creditable. The salutatory "Educational National Benefit" was by Miss Bessie Tomlinson, and the valedictory "Memory," by Miss Sallie Bullard. At the class day exercises yesterday morning the address by the president of the class was delivered by Miss Douglas Southerland, whose subject was "The Power of Ideals."

The class history by John C. Holland; the class essay, "Our Southern Writers," by Miss Pearl Jackson; the class poem by Miss Frances Lilly; the class prophecy by Miss Annie Williams and the class oration, "The Manifest Destiny of Our Nation," by John Albert Steel. The words of the class song were by Miss Isabel Lamb.

Other numbers of the programme included essays by Edward Meeks, Miss Eunice Sinclair, Robert Nolley and Miss Cuma Harris, and songs by the High School Choral Club, the graduating class, and by other pupils of the High School.

CAMPAIGN BOOSTER.

Congressman Godwin Adopts Unique Plan for Boosting His Candidacy.

(Special to Charlotte Observer.)

Washington, May 19.—Representative Godwin of the sixth district, being hard pressed by several ambitious citizens who would succeed him in Congress, has issued a most unique paper which he calls "The Voice of the People." The publication which he is sending out by the thousand, is in the form of a four-page, three-column newspaper, the front page being illumined by his picture. The printed matter is made up of excerpts from newspapers. There has never been anything of this kind issued in a primary contest by a North Carolina candidate for Congress. The idea is entirely original with Mr. Godwin and he thinks so well of it that he has employed a half dozen young women to mail it out to his constituents.

DUNCAN OPPOSING KEITH.

Wilmington Collectorship Held Up in Face of Appeal.

(Special to Charlotte Observer.)

Washington, May 19.—A real juicy bit of pie for North Carolina Republicans is tied up at Wilmington, owing to the fact that the people of the town insist on the appointment of B. F. Keith, and National Committeeman Duncan, who generally fights to the last ditch, does not care for Keith.

President Taft, more than two months ago, it is said, told Postmaster General Hitchcock, the grand old pie man of the South, to ask Mr. Duncan to call on him for a final conference. Mr. Duncan is charged with recommending S. M. King, an alleged interloper from Georgia, for the place, but more than six hundred Taft Democrats and others appealed to the White House for Keith.

Although Mr. Duncan has been here several times since the President gave the order to have him summoned he, it is alleged, has not been up to discuss the matter. There has been an intimation recently that the national committeeman was just a little shy of the White House. As a matter of fact, he has accomplished most of his appointments through the Postmaster General, and, thereby, made it necessary for him to go no further than the Postoffice Department, but extraordinary conditions have arisen in the Wilmington case. "Will he go?" That is the question.

FOR BURNING HIS OWN STORE.

Stokesdale Merchant Arrested for Causing Disastrous Fire.

(Special to Charlotte Observer.)

Greensboro, May 19.—R. W. Pegram, farmer and merchant of Stokesdale, was arrested this afternoon at the instance of Deputy State Insurance Commissioner W. A. Scott on a warrant charging arson.

The action is the sequel to a disastrous fire at Stokesdale last Friday night, when five stores, entailing a loss of $15,000 were burned. The fire originated in the rear of Pegram's store and it is said tracks that fit his shoe to the dot were found leading from the store to his residence. His insurance is also said to have been double his actual property loss.

Pegram was carried before a justice of the peace and his preliminary hearing set for Saturday. He gave bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance. Sentiment at Stokesdale is said to be strongly against him, though he has previously borne a good reputation.

WILSON BLIND TIGERS.

Eleven Cases Postponed Till Next September.

(Special to News and Observer.)

Wilson, N. C., May 19.—When court opened yesterday morning the cases of the eleven near beer dealers, against whom true bills were found by the grand jury, were by consent continued until the September term of Wilson Superior Court, the defendants giving bonds for their appearance. The whiskey cases were all deferred to that time also.

EVEN CURES ULCERS.

Remarkable Results from Skin Remedy That Costs Almost Nothing.

No matter how bad a sore or ulcer afflicts you, it is said that Hokara the pure skin food, will cure it. In fact, if it doesn't cure, the purchase price will be refunded.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., the local agents for Hokara, who have sold hundreds of packages the last few weeks, say they have yet to find any form of wound or disease affecting the skin that Hokara does not heal, and its relief is so instantaneous that those who try it are simply delighted with it.

Pimples, eczema, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, and all skin troubles are quickly cured by applying this simple skin food and tissue builder. It contains no grease or acids, and is cleanly to use.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. is selling Hokara at the low price of 25c for a liberal sized jar.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way.

GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION

Tentative Programme Arranged for Annual Meeting to be Held at Wrightsville Beach June 8th and 9th.

The annual meeting of the North Carolina Good Roads Association will be held at Wrightsville Beach June 8th and 9th. This will be perhaps the most important one that the Good Roads Association has ever held and it is hoped that there will be a very large attendance. One session of the meeting will be held as a joint meeting with the North Carolina Press Association, which meets at Wrightsville at the same time. This will mean a great deal to the success of the Good Roads Association meetings, inasmuch as the proceedings will be very extensively advertised through the press.

The tentative programme has been arranged by Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, State Geologist and Secretary of the association. On Wednesday evening, June 8th, an informal reception will be held in the parlors of the Tarrymoore Hotel. The association will meet Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock and after the opening prayer the annual address of President P. H. Hanes, of Winston-Salem, will be delivered. This will be followed by the annual reports of Secretary Pratt and Treasurer Joseph G. Brown, the latter of Raleigh, and the appointment of committees, after which an address will be delivered by Mr. M. L. Shipman, State Commissioner of Labor and Printing. Five-minute talks will then be made by County Commissioners. The afternoon session will convene at 2:30 P. M., and the following will make addresses on subjects to be announced later: Editor H. B. Varner, of the Lexington Dispatch; Congressman John H. Small, Prof. W. C. Riddick, Mr. C. E. Foy, of Newbern, president of the State Association of County Commissioners and Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt. At the evening session the meeting will be addressed by Mr. Geo. L. Morton, formerly of this city, but now of Atlanta, Ga. This will be followed by reports from committees and election of officers for the ensuing year.

In regard to the work of the association and the approaching convention Secretary Pratt says:

"The past year's work of the North Carolina Good Roads Association has been the most successful of any since its organization, but in reality it is simply what was to be expected as a result of educational work that has been carried on by this Association for the past ten years. More good roads meetings have been held than during any previous year; the attendance at these meetings has been larger and the actual results accomplished greater. Besides the meetings that the Association has held, it has published a great deal of good roads literature that has been widely circulated throughout the State.

"The members of the Association desire very much to have men sent to the Legislature of 19100 who are actively interested in good roads for every section of the State, believing that if such men are the next legislators they will not only be interested in the question of good roads, which is of such vital importance to the development of North Carolina, but they will also be interested in all questions that may come up which will affect in any way the educational and industrial advancement of North Carolina.

"The questions that will be discussed at the convention will take up various phases of good roads work in the State and especially the questions and problems relating to good road construction in eastern North Carolina; and, for this reason, the county and road commissioners of the State are earnestly urged to be present at the various meetings.

"The headquarters of the Association will be at the Tarrymoore Hotel, where special rates have been arranged for delegates and their friends, and the meetings will also be held in one of the large halls of this hotel. Delegates are requested to write the hotel in advance, reserving rooms. The other hotels and boarding houses will also probably make special rates to delegates. Special rates have been arranged by the railroads for the North Carolina Press Association, with whom the Good Roads Association will hold its sessions and, therefore, the delegates should inquire of the ticket agents at their respective depots regarding these special rates.

"Delegates to the meetings of the North Carolina Good Roads Association include county road commissioners of all the counties of the State, mayors of municipalities, and delegates-at-large appointed by chairmen of boards of county commissioners, mayors of cities, and presidents of business associations. All who are interested in the promotion of good roads are invited to attend the meetings of the Association."

COLORED PHYSICIAN ARRESTED.

Charged With Assault and Battery in Columbus County.

Dr. M. D. Bowen, a colored physician, was arrested yesterday morning by Deputy Sheriff Piver on a warrant from Columbus county charging him with assault and battery upon Sim Spalding, colored, of Whiteville, where the trouble is alleged to have occurred April 24th. Bowen gave $100 cash bond for his appearance at trial and left yesterday afternoon for Whiteville to be on hand when the case is called before a magistrate today. E. L. Freeman, colored, is charged with complicity in the assault and battery, it being charged that he held Spaulding's mule while Bowen did the beating. The trouble, it is said, resulted from alleged derogatory remarks made by Spaulding against Bowen. Spaulding is said to have been pretty badly beaten.

MEETING OF A. C. L. SURGEONS

Sixth Annual Convention Held at Charleston, S. C., This Week—Dr. G. G. Thomas in Attendance—New Officers.

Dr. G. G. Thomas, chief surgeon of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, has returned to Wilmington from Charleston, S. C., where Tuesday and Wednesday he attended the sixth annual convention of the Association of Surgeons of the Atlantic Coast Line held at the Charleston Hotel, headquarters of the members during their stay in the Palmetto State seaport city. Several other surgeons of the Coast Line from this section were in attendance upon the meeting. Last year the association met at Wrightsville Beach and the meeting was a most pleasant and profitable one.

The meeting in Charleston was largely attended and many matters of interest and importance to the physicians and surgeons of the railroad system were discussed. Dr. James H. Pittman, of Jacksonville, Fla., president of the association, presided, and at the opening session the address of welcome was delivered by the Hon. R. Goodwyn Rhett, Mayor of Charleston, and the response was made by Dr. A. E. Baker, president of the Medical Society of South Carolina. After the reports of the officers and the transaction of other business several papers were read, the following being the programme:

"Was She Injured at the Time of Accident?" Dr. J. M. Parrott, Kinston, N. C.

"Ulcer of the Stomach and Duodenum: The Importance of a Correct Diagnosis," Dr. J. E. Boyd, Jacksonville, Fla.

"Tumors of the Male Breast, with Report of a Case of Adenocarcinoma," Dr. Hardy Ainsworth, Thomasville, Ga.

"Diagnosis and Treatment of Fracture—Dislocation of the Shoulder Joint," Dr. J. S. McEwen, Orlando, Fla.

"Report of Cases Treated for Hookworms," Dr. M. M. McCord, Whigham, Ga.

"Local Anaesthesia," Dr. E. B. Quillen, Wilmington, N. C.

"The Surgical Effect of Some Disorders Complicating Pneumonia, and a Plea for Their Early Recognition," Dr. E. G. Moore, Elm City, N. C.

"Railroads vs. Tuberculosis," Dr. A. B. Patterson, Barnwell, S. C.

Members of the medical profession in Charleston arranged a programme for the entertainment of the visitors during their stay in that city. A harbor excursion, an informal smoker and a visit to the hospitals and the navy yard were among the features.

Wednesday afternoon, following a delightful smoker, tendered by the South Carolina Medical Society, officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, W. M. Brailsford, Mullins, S. C.; vice presidents, E. G. Moore, Elm City, N. C.; John Elliott Boyd, Jacksonville, Fla., and J. S. Beard, Troy, Ala.; secretary and treasurer, C. P. Aimar, Charleston, S. C.; executive committee, J. M. Parrott, Kinston, N. C.; Southgate Leigh, Norfolk, Va.; R. S. Kirk, Charleston, S. C.; W. M. Bacon, Albany, Ga.; J. A. Brunbidge, Alabama; J. S. McEwen, Orlando, Fla. Dr. Aimar, of Charleston, was the only officer re elected. Dr. G. G. Thomas, of this city, is the chairman of the executive committee. The place of next meeting will be selected by the executive committee.

AUCTION SALE OF LOTS

Realty and Auction Companies Dispose of Fine Sound Property.

The American Realty & Auction Co., of Greensboro, and the Suburban Realty & Auction Co., of Raleigh, on yesterday scored another triumphant success in their auction sale of beautiful residence lots at Villa View, on Wrightsville Sound. This suburb, laid off for several months and possessing every advantage of climate and location, only awaited the magic touch of these expert real estate promoters and it at once jumped into popular favor with the arrival of the date of the sale. With the twin auctioneers, the Penny Brothers, the martial strains of music by the band and the expert real estate men behind the guns, so to speak, 52 lots were sold in 60 minutes, prices averaging from $130 to $140. A large crowd of homeseekers and investors went down on four special trolley cars of the Tidewater Power Co., to attend the sale and the grounds while the sale lasted presented an animated appearance. It is understood that so successful was the sale that additional lots in the tract are to be laid off again and subsequently offered to the public. The sale was a splendid success in every way and the business-like way in which everything passed off in the hands of the gentlemen in charge challenged the admiration of all.

NEGRO SENT TO ROADS.

Lee Davis Given Six Months for Larceny of a Pistol.

In the Recorder's Court yesterday morning Lee Davis, colored, formerly employed on the steamer Duplin, was given a hearing on the charge of stealing an Iver-Johnson pistol from the room of the master of the vessel, Capt. D. J. Stokes, some days ago. Davis gave the pistol to a negro woman and it was recovered and identified in court yesterday morning as the property of Capt. Stokes. A sentence of six months on the county roads was imposed.

Carrie Brown, colored, was tried on the charge of stealing $22 in money from Albert Hassell, an aged colored man, but was found not guilty and released. She was represented by Brooke G. Empie, Esq. The only other case on the docket for trial yesterday morning was against Sam Green, colored, charged with disorderly conduct. He was fined $5 and costs, or 30 days on the county roads and will probably take the latter.

NORWEGIAN SAILOR DROWNED

Fell Overboard in Attempt to Jump From Boat to Board on Side of Steamer—Effort to Save His Life—One Rescued.

Richard Hagehorn, 20 years old, a Norwegian sailor on the Clyde Line steamer Santiago, was drowned yesterday at noon at the dock of the steamer at foot of Grace street, when he attempted to jump from a boat alongside the steamer to a board tied to the side of the vessel, lost his balance and fell into the river.

Two of the sailors were painting the port side of the steamer from a board that was tied to the vessel by ropes that extended aovre the rail. They had lowered themselves down the side of the vessel to a position about ten feet above the water, when Hagehorn climbed from the board into a boat. Soon afterwards he decided to regain his place on the board beside the other sailor, who is a Spaniard, and attempted to jump and catch the board. In some manner he lost his balance, missing the board in the jump, but caught hold of the legs of the other sailor, who was also pulled into the water. The Spanish sailor could swim and with a little assistance easily gained the shore, while the other man, who was unable to swim, made a desperate but unsuccessful effort to catch hold of the boat.

The accident was seen from shore and Gilbert Wingate, a colored man, employed at the Clyde Line dock, jumped overboard in an effort to save the drowning man, but was unable to get hold of him. He stated that Hagehorn only rose to the surface twice. Soon after he went down the last time a party of sailors from the steamer recovered the body a short distance from the steamer.

Hagehorn was about 20 years old and this was his first trip on the steamer Santiago, having signed in New York last week.

The remains were removed to the funeral parlors of Mr. J. F. Woolvin, on Princess street, where they were prepared for burial, and will be interred in Bellevue cemetery this morning at 10:30 o'clock services being conducted at the grave by Rev. W. A. Snyder, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church.

MURCIA GOES TO PANAMA.

The British steamer Murcia, Capt. Kirton, cleared yesterday for Panama with 30,000 cross-ties, valued at $17,000 from Mr. L. J. Merriman. Several cargoes have been shipped by steamer from the port of Wilmington during the past few years and are used in the consruction of a railroad in the canal zone.

The steamer left port three days late, a controversy having arisen between owners of the vessel and consignee, which will be submitted to arbitration for settlement. The owners of the Murcia claim demurrage of about three days for delaying the vessel after the time specified in the charter party had expired. Mr. Merriman in a letter to Collector Keith stated that the vessel had not complied with the contract. The matter will be submitted to a Board of Arbitration in Baltimore to be settled within ten days after the ship cleared from this port. The owners wanted the matter settled in New York, Mr. Merriman preferred a Wilmington board of arbitration and they finally compromised on Baltimore. The steamer went to sea last night.

DR. McCLURE RETURNS.

Back From Pleasant and Most Interesting Trip—Pulpit Sunday.

Rev. Alexander D. McClure, D. D., the beloved pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, returned Wednesday from a most interesting and pleasant trip of two weeks or more during which he attended the great Laymen's Missionary Congress in Chicago, accounts of which were carried in the press reports, and visited the scenes of his boyhood home in Tennessee, preaching one of the sermons at the centennial celebration of his mother's church in the latter State. Dr. McClure's friends are delighted to see him looking well and to know that he enjoyed his trip greatly. He will fill his pulpit at St. Andrew's at the usual hours tomorrow.

EXHIBITION OF HANDICRAFT.

Models of Ocean-Going Tugs Made by Capt. J. C. Morrison.

In the show windows of the Willson Company, No. 215 Princess street, are two models of ocean-going tugs, "The Comet" and "The Climax", made with an ordinary pen knife by Capt. James C. Morrison, who is a genius in this class of handicraft. The "Comet" is the larger model and it was carved out of ordinary wood with a small pen knife and then beautifully finished in colors and represented under full steam at sea. The "Climax" is a smaller model but none the less perfect in its design and execution. The exhibit in the window has attracted many who pass that way and Capt. Morrison's work has been much admired.

Death of Little Daughter.

Friends of Mr. Chas. C. Scherer will deeply sympathize with him in the death of his two-year-old daughter Mary Gladys Scherer, which occurred at the family residence, No. 1020 North Eighth street, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, after a brief illness. The funeral services will be held from the residence at 11 o'clock this morning and the interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

PARSON IN PECK OF TROUBLE

Preacher-Tailor Alston Thought to Have Defrauded Negroes Out of Several Hundred Dollars—Many Warrants.

Subsequent developments have proven the wisdom of Rev. T. R. Alston, the colored preacher-tailor, in breaking away from an officer last Saturday night, when arrested for false pretense, had he been shrewd enough to have evaded recapture, for he will have to do a mighty lot of explaining in court today if he escapes a good long sentence. There are now all told eight cases against him for false pretense and there will likely be many others.

Alston, a native of Siler City, Chatham county, 25 miles beyond Sanford on the A. & Y., where he did not bear an enviable reputation, came here some months ago as pastor of one of the colored churches and being desirous of drawing more money than is usually paid to ministers he opened a pressing establishment, on Second, between Princess and Chesnut streets, across from the City Livery Company, and also took the agency for the Monumental Clothing House, of Baltimore, Md. It is his feigned connection with the last named business that has gotten him in so much trouble. The negroes who swore out the warrants against him allege that they gave him orders some months ago for suits of clothes, ranging in price from $14 to $20, which they were to pay for on the installment plan before deliveries were made. Some weeks ago, they allege, they called upon Alston for their suits and were told by him that the clothing had arrived but that he did not have the required amount to get them from the express office, and asked them to pay down the balance due, which they claim they did. Still the suits were not delivered and some of those who had placed orders made inquiries at the express office, where, they claim, they were told that no express of the kind had been received by Alston. One of the negroes wrote a letter to the Monumental Clothing House explaining the conduct of the parson, but received no reply. The letter, it seems, was forwarded here to Alston, who afterward guyed the negro for writing the house and told him that letters to the house would not do his case any good, or something to that effect, said the negro in question yesterday afternoon. The officers believe that Alston has secured several hundred dollars from negroes in this section. It was stated yesterday that his operations were not confined to Wilmington, but that Southport negroes had been victimized.

The first cases against Alston were started in Justice George Harriss' court last Saturday, when Isaac Robinson and E. H. Blocker, colored, secured warrants, which were placed in the hands of Mr. Ed. George, deputized to make the arrest of the parson. Mr. George arrested the negro, but while en route to the county jail Alston made a break and sped away so rapidly that he made good his escape for several days. He was recaptured, however, a few days later and safely lodged in jail and his bond increased from $200 to $1,000. The cases were set for hearing yesterday morning before Justice Harriss, but were removed to Justice Bornemann's court. A warrant was also issued against the negro for resisting arrest, which case was heard before Justice Bornemann, who bound the defendant over to the Recorder's court. L. Clayton Grant, Esq., represented Alston and he waived examination in the false pretense cases, which will be investigated by the Recorder this morning.

During the progress of the trial of Alston on the charge of resisting an officer there occurred a rather sensational accident in which figured Justice Bornemann and Mr. Grant. It appears that there was only one witness in the case, Mr. Ed. George, from whom the negro made his escape. Mr. George, in his testimony, did not state that he had been deputized to arrest Alston or that he had arrested the negro, merely telling of the escape. When he had concluded Mr. Grant asked Justice Bornemann if he had any other testimony for the State and being answered in the negative he made the point that the defendant should be discharged as it had not been shown that Mr. George was a public officer nor that he was deputized to arrest the negro. The court ruled against him, stating that he knew of his own knowledge that the arrest was made and in due form. He then announced that he would bind the defendant over to the Recorder's court. Mr. Grant then walked to the door, stating that he would not allow Justice Bornemann to try another case, whereupon the justice called to Constable Savage to place the attorney under arrest. The arrest was not made, however, but the justice filled out a commitment sentencing Mr. Grant to 24 hours in the county jail. Later, Mr. Grant, in company with another member of the bar, went to Justice Bornemann and made an apology, which was accepted by the court, who then destroyed the commitment.

Late yesterday afternoon Frank Evans, James Simpson, James Foster, Owen Blocker and George Simpson swore out warrants against Alston before Justice Harriss charging him with false pretense. The warrants were served on Alston, who is in jail, by Constable Savage. The hearing will take place before Justice Harriss immediately after the Recorder's court today. Wm. J. Bellamy, Esq., has been retained as counsel for the complainants, and both sides will be stubbornly fought.

MISTRIAL IN KNOX CASE

Jury Was Unble to Agree After Deliberating for More Than Six Hours—Eleven Said to Favor Plaintiff—End of Court.

After deliberating for a little over six hours the United States Circuit Court jury, having in hearing the case of C. O. Knox against the Cape Fear Lumber Company, at 6:45 o'clock last evening announced that it was impossible to reach an agreement, 11 being reported in favor of plaintiff and one for the defendant, whereupon a juror was withdrawn and a mistrial ordered by Judge Jas. E. Boyd. The jurors were then discharged for the term, there being no other cases for trial at this term.

The case of Knox against the lumber company was taken up Thursday morning, the taking of the testimony and speeches of two counsel being made before adjournment for the day, those addressing the jury being Iredell Meares, Esq., of counsel for the defendant company, and Herbert McClammy, Esq., of counsel for the plaintiff. When court reconvened yesterday morning Robert Ruark, Esq., for the defendant company, and Hon. John D. Bellamy, for the plaintiff, addressed the jury, after which Judge Boyd began his charge, which was spoken of by the attorneys in the court room as being one of the finest ever heard from the bench in Wilmington. After the jury retired Hon John D. Bellamy, of counsel for the plaintiff, arose and said that he desired to state that the charge was the clearest and ablest that he had ever listened to in his 30 odd years of law practice. This tribute came as a surprise to the court, but was concurred in by many other members of the bar. Judge Boyd has made a more favorable impression upon the members of the Wilmington bar and all others who have been in attendance upon Federal Court during the past two weeks. He is one of the ablest jurists in the State and wherever he has held court there has been nothing but praise for him.

The testimony in the case and the charge of Judge Boyd was taken down by Mr. Meares Harriss, the expert court stenographer. Mr. Knox was suing the company for $25,000 alleged damages for false arrest. The two main issues submitted to the jury were: "Did the defendant, without probable cause, and maliciously, prosecute the plaintiff in a criminal action as alleged in the complaint?" "Did the defendant, by the wrongful and malicious use and abuse of the process of the court, injure the plaintiff as alleged in the complaint?" The third issue was with reference to the amount of damage. During the afternoon the jury filed in the court room and asked for additional instructions. The first time they were divided as to certain features of the testimony, and Judge Boyd told the jurors that it was not a matter for him to enlighten them. About 6 o'clock they asked for additional instructions as to what constitutes probable cause, the one juror who held for the defendant being uncertain on this point. The additional instructions were given as requested, but did not seem to help any so far as arriving at a verdict was concerned.

Court practically adjourned yesterday afternoon, there being no other cases on the docket for trial, but will not formally adjourn until today. Judge Boyd leaves this morning for his home in Greensboro and other out-of-town court officers will probably leave in the afternoon.

It was announced in court yesterday that the case of J. N. Meredith against the Waccamaw Lumber Company had been compromised. It is understood that the defendant agreed to pay the plaintiff $900. The plaintiff was represented by Messrs. Schulken and McRacken, of Whiteville, while Meares & Ruark, of this city, appeared for the defendant company. Mr. Meredith was injured about two years ago by a log train of the defendant company, one of his legs being broken in two places.

DELEGATES ARE ARRIVING

Twenty-Seventh Annual Meeting of Council of the Diocese of East Carolina Convevnes at St. John's Tonight.

Delegates began to arrive yesterday for the 27th annual meeting of Council of the Diocese of East Carolina, the first session of which will be held in St. John's Episcopal church, corner Third and Red Cross streets, this evening at 9 o'clock. Rev. William E. Cox, the rector, and the committee on arrangements, have everything in readiness for the meeting, which promises to be largely attended by delegates and clergymen from all parts of East Carolina.

Among those who arrived yesterday was Col. Wilson G. Lamb, of Williamston, chairman of the Finance Committee, who is a guest at The Orton. Today Col. Lamb, as chairman of the Finance Committee, will audit the books of Capt. Thos. D. Meares, treasurer of the Diocese, which have been ready for the meeting for several days. The report of the treasurer will make a fine showing for the past year. Mr. J. P. Haskit, of Kinston, one of the delegates, was among the others who arrived yesterday. He is a guest of his son, at 318 Red Cross street. A large number of delegates are expected to arrive on the morning and afternoon trains today and many others will come in on the evening trains. The deleagtes and clergymen will be entertained in the homes of the members of the Episcopal churches of the city.

The sessions of the Council will be presided over by Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, Bishop of the Diocese. The preliminary session tonight will be for organization. Some committees will be appointed and after the general meeting the standing committees will hold meetings to finish their reports and for the transaction of other matters that will be presented to Council Sunday morning at 11 o'clock there will be Morning Prayer, Celebration of the Holy Communion and annual sermon by Rev. John H. Brown, rector of Christ Church, Newbern. Sunday afternoon from 5:45 to 7 will be observed as "Quiet Hour", and at 8 P. M. the annual address of the Bishop will be delivered. The Council will continue in session through Monday and Tuesday, the full and complete programme for which will be announced in tomorrow's Star.

ORPHANAGE SINGING CLASS.

Children From Oxford Will Give Concert Here Wednesday Night.

Tickets for the concert to be given in the Academy of Music next Wednesday night by the Oxford Orphanage Singing Class, under the auspices of the local Masonic lodges, are being disposed of very rapidly by the children who have entered the contest for a prize for the highest number sold. From present indications the attendance will tax the capacity of the opera house and those who attend may be assured of a concert that will prove enjoyable, refreshing and helpful. The singing class has been to Wilmington many times in the past and the concerts are always up to the highest standard of excellence and usually largely attended. The Masons should receive the heartiest support of the entire community by patronizing the concert of the children from Oxford. The institution represented by the class at Oxford is attempting the care of 330 girls and boys and by attending the concert one will not only spend an evening of genuine enjoyment and profit but will render aid to an institution which ranks among the most valuable in the State.

Special Services Arrived.

Announcement was made yesterday by Ensign Williams, in charge of the local post of the Salvation Army, of special services to be held in the hall, over the offices of the Tidewater Power Company, Tuesday and Wednesday nights of next week. Adjutant Quirk and Captain Seikman, of Atlanta, Ga., were expected to be present and assist in the meetings. The services in the hall will be preceded by the usual out-door services at corner of Front and Princess streets.

Goes to Sea Sunday.

The steamer wilmington will make another of the interesting trips to sea Sunday, leaving in the morning at 10 o'clock and returning to the city at 6:30 P. M. The steamer will stop at Carolina Beach and Southport, both going and coming. Large crowds have been taking advantage of these Sunday trips during the past few weeks. The fare for the round trip is 50 cents to sea and 25 cents to Carolina Beach.

COAL DEALERS EXPANDING.

Ten Southern States Are to Have Membership in Association.

Memphis, May 20.—At the concluding session of the Kentucky and Tennessee Retail Coal Merchants' Association today a secretary will be chosen to succeed George C. Tabb, of Louisville, who has announced his inability to serve in that position another year.

Louisville, Ky., and Knoxville, Tenn., are candidates for next year's meeting place.

It is possible that North and South Carolina, Georgia, Virginia, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi and Arkansas will be taken into the association, and the name changed to that of the Southern Association of Retail Coal Dealers.

The board of directors will be instructed by the convention to correspond with dealers in those States and make arrangements for such a step if they think it advisable.

LOCAL DOTS.

—A false alarm turned in from box 17, corner Seventh and Nixon streets, at 11:45 o'clock yesterday morning gave the firemen a good run for nothing.

—The funeral services of the little son of Mr. B. M. Lehue were conducted by Rev. J. S. Crowley instead of Rev. W. L. Rexford, as erroneously stated in yesterday's Star.

—Another dance will be given at Lumina tonight. A seven-piece orchestra under the leadership of Prof. Kneisel will furnish the music. Extra cars will be run at 8:00, 8:30 and 9:00 P. M.

—The German steamer Sophie Rickmers, Capt. Kohn, arrived in port yesterday from Hamburg, Germany, with cargo of kainit to be discharged to the Seaboard. The steamer sailed from Hamburg on the first of May and comes to Heide & Co.

—The schooner Joel Cook, Capt. Loveland, cleared yesterday for New York with cargo of lumber from the Hilton Lumber Company. She carries 568,274 feet of lumber and part of the cargo will be discharged at Norwalk, Conn.

—Capt. D. J. Stokes, master of the steamer Duplin, which plys between Wilmington, Smith's Bridge and Chinquepin, on the Northeast river, is now sole owner of the vessel, having recently purchased the remaining half interest owned by Mr. J. A. Rowe, of Burgaw. There will be no change in management and Capt. Stokes assures patrons that they will be given prompt service.

NEWBERN MAIL SERVICE.

Senator Simmons Scores With Postoffice Department in Matter.

A letter yesterday from Senator Simmons, supplementing the telegram from Congressman Godwin yesterday morning, brings the gratifying information that not only has Senator Simmons been successful in his efforts with the Postoffice Department in securing a local railway mail service on the new early morning train between this city and Newbern, but that arrangements have been made by which this will afford a through service to the North out of Newbern. By virtue of his position on the committee on postoffice and postroads, Mr. Simmons was able to at once get the ear of the Department and this local and through service will be put on at once. This will be of great advantage to business men not only in Wilmington, but all along the line of the Newbern road and will bring this territory in much closer business relationship with this city and Newbern. Senator Simmons and the people whom he serves so efficiently in Washington are to be congratulated upon this latest evidence of his ability to "do things" at the National capitol.

EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY.

Celebrated by George Washington Council, Jr. O. U. A. M.

The eighth anniversary of George Washington Council, No. 67, Junior Order, United American Mechanics, was celebrated last night with appropriate exercises at its hall, 125 Market street. There was a large attendance of members and all entered into the spirit of the occasion. Pleasing short addresses were made by Joseph W. Little, Esq., Messrs. Jas. S. Tripp, W. L. Moore, Jas. C. Lewis and George W. Branch, after which refreshments were served. The meeting was presided over by Councilor J. L. Anderson.

Meeting of the Bar Today.

A meeting of the bar of the county will be held at 10 o'clock this morning in the office of the Clerk of Superior Court to arrange the calendar for the two weeks' term of Superior Court, which begins May 30th. The meeting was to have been held Thursday morning but was postponed as many of the lawyers were engaged in Federal Court at the time.

INQUIRY NEARING END.

Arguments of Attorneys at Ballinger-Pinchot Investigation.

Washington, May 20.—With all the testimony to be presented before it the Ballinger-Pinchot investigating committee today took steps to bring to a speedy conclusion the Congressional inquiry which has been in progress for four months.

Two days next week—Friday and Saturday—have been allotted the lawyers to make their closing arguments when the public hearings will end. The attorneys then will have 15 days in which to submit briefs summing up their cases, after which the committee will begin executive sessions to weigh the mass of evidence which has been presented.

Both sides will have the opportunity to add to the already bulky record papers and affidavits of a certain character. Attorney Vertrees, counsel for Ballinger, today put in the agreements between L. R. Glavis and W. W. Barr, a land broker, of Seattle, to show that Glavis had a pecuniary interest in obtaining timber lands from the government. It was the avowed purpose of the "defense" to show that in this matter Glavis used information he obtained while in the employ of the government.

Portions of the testimony at the trial of the Cunningham coal land cases also were presented by Vertrees, who said it showed that Glavis and Special Agent Jones knew there was nothing in the charge that the Cunninghams were planning to get control of the Cunningham claims when they took the affidavits of the claimants. The attorney said the testimony bore out the mention made in the Cunningham affidavit prepared by Ballinger that there was no agreement with the Guggenheims prior to the location of the claims.

STRIKE OF BOILERMAKERS.

Georgia Railroad and C. and W. C. Are Involved in Augusta.

Augusta, May 20.—The status of the boilermakers' strike remains unchanged. About sixteen men are involved in the Charleston and Western Carolina Railway and the Georgia Railroad shops.

The demand of the union men was for fifty cents per hour, and a nine-hour working day.

The railroads say that there will be no difficulty in filling the strikers' places.

W. L. I.'S 57TH ANNIVERSARY

Celebrated at Wrightsville Beach Yesterday With Shoots, Drills and Dance—Carolina Beach Excursion.

Although not marked by any formal celebration in Wilmington the anniversary of the signing of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence was observed in this city by a pretty general suspension of business; exercises by Wilmington Light Infantry at Wrightsville Beach, excursion to Carolina Beach and a baseball game at League Park being the features of the day.

Quite a number of persons took advantage of the opportunity to spend a day very pleasantly at Carolina Beach, some leaving in the morning and others in the afternoon on the steamer Wilmington and returning early in the evening. The excursion was conducted under the auspices of the Chapel of the Good Shepherd. Many others went to Wrightsville Beach to witness the competitive shoot held by the W. L. I., which celebrated its 57th anniversary yesterday. There was a large attendance of the members of the company and all spent the day very pleasantly. The baseball game claimed a fairly large number of people during the afternoon.

The offices of the Court House and other public offices and the banks were closed all day and the postoffice observed holiday hours.

Members of the W. L. I. went down to the beach yesterday morning and did not return until about midnight. Dinner and supper was served in good old-fashioned picnic style at Lumina.

The company shoot for the medal took place on the 200-yard range back of Lumina, starting at 11:30 o'clock and concluding about 4 o'clock. The shoot was witnessed by a number of spectators and was very interesting, though no especially high scores were made on account of the high winds. Messrs. Paul L. Cantwell, C. K. Davis and L. L. Merritt tied for the medal on first shoot, and on second Mr. Cantwell won over his competitors. The scores made in the first shoot out of a possible 25 were as follows: Clowe, 8; Poisson, D. B., 8; Harriss, W., 8; Royal, 6; Holmes, J. H., 16; Hayden, 2; Jacobs, 10; Merritt, 18; Grant, R. O., Jr., 15; Peschau, E. F., 6; Poisson, L. J., 8; Turner, 12; O'Neill, 10; Orrell, L. B., 17; Grant, R. H., Jr., 16; Hines, H. V., 14; Holmes, E. H., 12; Ruark, 0; Dickinson, 10; Cantwell, 18; Jackson, 8; Swain, 8; Pender, 13; Bell, 15; Loring, 16; Harriss, A., 10; Davis, C. K., 18; Parmele, 7; Lynch, J. B., 10; Nash, H. K. Jr., 0; Hines, E. C., 14; Tapp, 14; Eeveritt, 10; Among some of the Reserve Corps men who participated in the shoot and the results obtained by them: Smith, A. C., 4; Taylor, Jas. H. Jr., 11; Morse, N., 5; Heinsberger, 11; Willard, E. P., 15; Robertson, W. F., 17; Davis, J. H., 13; Beery, E. M., 10; Orrell, T. R., 18. In the second contest between the three highest in contest for the company medal, the result was as follows: Cantwell, 18; Davis, 16; Merritt, 11.

At 5 o'clock the competitive shoot between teams of the W. L. I. active and the W. L. I. Reserve Corps for the silver loving cup took place, the former being represented by Messrs. Merritt, Loring, L. Orrell, C. K. Davis, and P. L. Cantwell, and the latter by Messrs. E. P. Willard, Col. W. F. Robertson, J. H. Davis, Major T. R. Orrell and Ed. Heinsberger. The Reserve Corps team won by the score of 84 to 80. The cup was presented to Mr. J. H. Davis, of the Reserve Corps, by Major T. E. Orrell, representing the active organization, and Mr. Davis in turn presented it to Lieut. Lynch to be placed in the W. L. I. trophy case.

The competitive drill for a silver loving cup took place at 9:30 o'clock on the ball room floor, following a short exhibition drill. The judges were Capt. E. A. Metts, commander, Lieut. P. L. Cantwell and Lieut. J. B. Lynch and the cup finally went to Mr. E. F. Peschau as the best drilled man. This was followed by a souvenir dance, which proved one of the most enjoyable that has taken place at Lumina this season. Attractive souvenir fans were given each of the dancers. The dance continued until 11:30 o'clock when the crowd returned to the city.

STORM IN TEXAS.

Residences Are Wrecked in Houston and Other Damage Done.

Houston, May 20.—Reports today indicate that the heavy wind and rain storm which swept over the coast region late yesterday, breaking a long and severe drought, claimed one life, injured probably a dozen others and wrecked several small residences.

At Hockley, Texas, the eleven-year old son of J. L. House was instantly killed by lightning, while three of the dead boy's brothers were severely shocked and otherwise injured.

Near Seally, the home of Charles Phillips was completely wrecked by the wind, and Phillips, his wife and child were severely hurt. The wind at this point reached the proportions of a tornado.

At Kingsville, the residence of R. A. Patten was wrecked and Miss Lillie Meeks painfully hurt.

Many towns report damage to property. The rain accompanying the disturbance will be of great benefit to the growing crops.

PRICE WINS A POINT.

Cotton King's Indictment Growing Out of Leak.

Washington, May 20.—Theodore H. Price, of New York, the cotton king, indicted here for connection with the cotton leak scandal of 1908, cannot be prosecuted in the District of Columbia, according to a ruling of the Supreme Court of the District here today.

Price's plea that the grand jury which indicted him had a government employe upon it was sustained.

St. Louis, Mo., May 20.—Two trainmen were killed and their bodies burned in the wreckage when a northbound Peoria sleeper on the Illinois traction system collided with a southbound electric freight train near Lovelace early today. Overhead electric wires fell and set fire to the wreckage. No passengers were injured.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mr. Carl F. Seitter has returned from Mt. Pleasant College, where he was a student during the past term.

—Pender Chronicle: "Mr. Chas. V. Motte, of Wilmington, visited his parents here Sunday and assisted the Baptist choir in their musical programme."

—Rev. Mr. Beatty, who recently accepted a call to the pastorate of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, will arrive in the city today and will begin his duties as pastor of the church Sunday.

—Mr. H. C. Grant arrived home yesterday from Baltimore, where he attended the University of Maryland. He is studying medicine at the latter institution and will be a member of the junior class next year.

—Among the guests at The Orton yesterday were J. P. Hubbard and R. J. Coulon, Washington, D. C.; J. B. Schulken, Whiteville; E. J. Hill, Warsaw; A. B. Croom, Burgaw; W. E. Ward, Selma; J. T. Bland, Burgaw.

—Mr. W. P. McGlaughon has returned from a ten days' visit to his brother-in-law, Mr. J. B. Ward, in Nashville, Tenn. Mrs. McGlaughon and children, who accompanied him to Nashville, will remain there a week or two longer.

—Many friends will regret to learn that Rev. Thos. P. Noe, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, has been confined to his room for several days on account of illness, but will be glad to know that his condition was much improved last night. He hopes to be out again in a few days.

—Mr. Louis Warrock, an old Wilmington boy whom it is always a pleasure for his friends here to greet, is at home for a visit of some time. He has almost completely recovered from the recent accident on the Northern Pacific Railroad in which he suffered a compound fracture of the leg, his friends will be glad to know.

TENNESSEE PRESBYTERIANS.

Baskette's Report Discussing Publishing Interests.

Dickson, Tenn., May 20.—Frequently digressing from his prepared report, R. L. Baskette, secretary of the Board of Publication of Culbert and Presbyterian Church at the General Assembly of the church today, discussed the publishing interest of the denomination and referred caustically to those of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A., who are contesting in court for the property. His assertions were vigorous and at the intervals indicated that the militant members of the church were not without representation among the assembled body.

The report as published recited the resumption of control by the Cumberland church of the publishing house at Nashville on a decision of the State court and the present status of the appeal pending before the Supreme Court of the United States instituted in behalf of the Presbyterian church, U. S. A. The report places the liabilities of the publishing concern at $50,139.58 and the aggegrate resources are stated to be $215,463.20. The volume of business for the past year is placed at $151,999.64, a decrease for the year of $18,464.96.

The entire afternoon session of the Assembly was devoted to the hearing of reports. That of the board of ministerial relief showed 20 beneficiaries among the aged ministers, to whom $1,275.96 was paid during the year. To constitute a fund for this purpose a campaign will be started seeking the investment of certain amounts by members of the church, the interest to be paid to the board. Te report of the board of missions showed disbursements of $2,000.

The Woman's Board of Missions heard messages and reports of committees of the missions in China, Oklahoma and among the Chinese in San Francisco. The Indian mission in Oklahoma was represented by a full blooded Choctaw woman, one of the field missionaries of the church.

EARTHQUAKE REPORTED.

Seismograph at Georgetown University Indicates Shake Somewhere.

Washington, May 20.—An earthquake estimated to be from four to five thousand miles from Washington, was recorded by the seismograph at Georgetown University shortly after 7 o'clock this morning, Father Francis A. Tondorf, professor of astronomy, said he was inclined to believe that the disturbance was in the vicinity of Costa Rica, which only a few weeks ago was the scene of an appalling earthquake. The instrument, however, indicated that today's vibrations were only of moderate intensity. The movement lasted fourteen minutes, beginning at 7:14 and ending at 7:28. Two pronounced shocks were recorded, the first at 7:20 and the second at 7:22. The motion was mainly east and west.

Theatrical

The Reinfield's Lady Minstrels has proven the very best vaudeville attraction ever offered in Wilmington and it was well, on account of the large size of the audiences, that the attraction was placed in the Academy in lieu of the Crystal Palace. The audiences last night were large, as usual, and each thoroughly enjoyed the performance. The ladies were especially pleased, and the refinement of the attraction has in itself made a big hit. The performance now being given is entirely different from the first part of the week, and, if anything, is by far better. The change of programme went on Thursday.

Today the merry minstrel maidens will close their engagement at the Academy, giving three performances, at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and at 8:15 and 9:15 o'clock tonight. The admission still remains at the low figure of 15 cents.

At the Bijou Today.

"The Tongue of Scandal" is the title of the feature picture that will be shown at the Bijou today. It is a rustic drama of life in a small town where the tongue of scandal, the ear of the eavesdropper and the eye of suspicion are ever ready to speak, hear and see the faults of their neighbors. The picture will be seen with much interest by the many patrons of the resort.

LAKE MOHAWK CONFERENCE.

An International Court of Arbitral Justice Soon.

Mohonk Lake, N. Y., May 20.—The 16th annual session of the Lake Mohonk Conference on international arbitration concluded its deliberations tonight. The most important concerted happening was the official announcement to the conference by Secretary Knox through Solicitor of the States Department, James Brown Scott, of the probable early establishment of an international court of arbitral justice.

This assurance coupled with President Taft's recent declaration in favor of arbitration treaties containing no reservations as to national honor or interest and the presence here of the dean of Worcester, England, and the Rev. William Thomas, of London, as delegates for the churches of all sorts and denominations in the British and German Empires to urge American churches to join in a world peace league, infused the delegate with a spirit of optimism.

Other cheering news to the peace advocates was the official announcement during the conference that Peru has accepted the offer of mediation by the United States, Brazil and Argentina in her dispute with Ecuador and an unofficial report that Ecuador will do likewise; and the near approach of the celebration of a hundred years of peace between the United States and Great Britain with an object lesson in limitation of armaments for more than 90 years on the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence river.

Among the speakers at tonight's concluding session was Benton Gilreath, of Birmingham, Ala.

TORNADO DESTROYS TOWN

Mayesville, Oklahoma, Wiped Off of the Map.

Pauls Valley, Okla., May 20.—Mayesville, a small town 15 miles northwest of here, was wiped off of the map by a tornado early this evening and several persons were killed, according to meagre reports received here tonight.

The town of McCarty, near Mayesville, was nearly all swept away and three persons there were killed. All wires are down. Relief parties probably will be sent out tonight.

One of the hardest hail storms in the history of this region swept over a stretch of country near here this evening, in places destroying all signs of vegetation.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES,

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipped Away.

Wilmington women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Wilmington woman's words:

Mrs. Laura E. Hand, 809 Ann St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am willing to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as they did me a world of good. I suffered from dull, nagging backaches and had such severe pains across my loins that I was prevented from sleeping well. The kidney secretions also caused me annoyance. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box from Robert R. Bellamy's Drug Store and they did me more good than any other remedy I had ever taken. The backache ceased, my kidneys became normal and I could go to bed and obtain a full night's rest."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Mexican MUSTANG LINIMENT

An unfailing remedy for the ills of your Live-stock and especially valuable in cases of Caked Udder and Sore Teats in Cows.

Saves Loss in the Dairy.

LYON MANUFACTURING CO.,
BROOKLYN, N. Y.

GENTLEMEN:—It seems to me among your claims as to the efficacy of Mexican Mustang Liniment you hardly give prominence enough to its wonderful curative power on inflamed and caked udder in cows. I have used it for two years in my stable and since I began its use have not had a case which was not relieved by a few applications. A thorough bathing of the udder with hot water followed by gentle and persistent rubbing in of the "Mustang" will, I believe, cure any case, leaving the teats in good order—unless suppuration has already begun. If all others in the dairy business knew this it would save much worry and loss.

Respectfully,
MRS. A. I. YOUNG,
Columbus, Ga. The Pines Dairy.

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, May 20.—With the cotton exchanges at both New Orleans and Liverpool closed for the day, business in New York was chiefly local and only moderately active, while fluctuations showed continued irregularity, with the close barely steady at a net advance of 1 to 6 points. The market opened steady at an advance of 3 to 7 points on a renewal of yesterday's late covering movement, but quickly weakened under near months liquidation which was attributed to the circulation of May notices estimated at about 12,000 bales, and a favorable view of early weather reports. July contracts sold off to 14.86, or 12 points under the closing figures of last night when May declined to 14.87 or 6 points net lower, and the new crop sold at a net loss of about 4 to 5 points. It was soon found, however, that the May notices were not being allowed to circulate very far, but were promptly being taken up by the strong interests which had been accepting delivery on contract during the entire month and the market steadied up, on a renewal of covering and bull support. The forecast calling for continued wet weather and lower temperatures was considered by many to be hardly favorable and helped the advance. July contracts sold at 15.05 late in the day, and October at 12.85, a net advance of about 8 points. The close was a little off from the best under realizing. The New Orleans market will be open tomorrow but Liverpool will remain closed until Monday morning. Southern spot markets officially reported early were unchanged to 1-4c lower. It is reported that 10,000 bales will be shipped from the local stock to Liverpool on Saturday and that freight room has been engaged for the shipment of about 20,000 bales next week. It is estimated that the bulls have not received on May contracts nearly 300,000.

Receipts at the ports today were 13,998 bales against 8,289 last week and 18,620 last year. For the week 50,000 against 56,186 last week and 88,851 last year.

Spot closed quiet 5 points advance; middling uplands 15.25; middling gulf 15.50. Sales were 5,700 bales.

Futures opened steady and closed barely steady.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF COTTON.

New York, May 20.—Beneficial rains all over the belt, warmer weather, heavy liquidation and persistent hammering have brought about lower prices. The market here is now more in line with Liverpool. Recently it was even with, or a little below that market which was unnatural. Now the summer months of the two markets are nearer a natural parity, while October here is on an export basis. Much weak long cotton has been weeded out and the technical position is therefore considered much better than it was a week ago. Lancashires trade is apparently in a promising condition and yarns in Philadelphia are stronger even if they are not at all active.

Wall street, and other houses have latterly been buying new crop months at the current discount. At Alexandria, Egypt, prices have fallen noticeably, but in Liverpool the feeling is bullish owing to small stocks there and a good demand. The spot and call business there during the week has ranged from 10,000 to 14,000 bales a day. Its stock of American cotton is 550,000 bales which is only about eight weeks supply. This would supply the trade there down only to the middle of July, whereas no large qualities of American cotton are available it is argued, before October. Continental spinners have latterly been buying freely at Bremen, and it is said that continental supplies are now burdensome by any means. As for this country, the crop, although favored by better conditions, now, such as warm and rainy weather, has had a rather late start and an estimate published during the week puts the average increase in acreage only 1.26 per cent. This included a decrease of 15 per cent. in Louisiana and six per cent. in Arkansas, though it is also said there will be an increase of 5 per cent. in Texas and 15 per cent. in Oklahoma. A good many unfavorable crop reports have been received from Georgia. Fall River sales of printcloths have latterly increased noticeably and the general dry goods situation in this country, is said to be better than it was recently. But the recent advance at New York was too tempting for the average operator and profit taking and selling for a decline on the theory that a reaction was due have been potent forces in bringing prices to a lower level. Liverpool has been a good buyer of July and August, and Wall street has covered on a large scale. Spot interests at times have bought freely and the rank and file of operators in Liverpool seems to be strongly bullish in their convictions.

Many houses deprecate trading in the summer months as they are so subject to manipulation. At the same time they are buying October and December. Others think prices are altogether too high. Commission houses complain that the bull deals ties up trading. There are persistent rumors that large Chicago interests have sold out and that there are dissensions among the leading bulls.

New Orleans bull leaders now here, however, were open buyers today and brokers acting for Chicago interests made liberal purchases of July.

CURTAILMENT DISCUSSED

In Textile Manufacturing—Bradstreet's Report.

New York, May 20.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: Trade reports except in the Northwest and on the North Pacific coast, are of little gain in activity, and indeed in some lines, such as textile manufacturing, quiet or further curtailment is still the subject of discussion.

Prominent in the lines of industry that are still active are the building trades, with the hardware and other kindred lines. There are still evidence, however, that anticipations as to spring trade were keyed too high, that retail merchants have not disposed of spring stocks to the extent hoped for, that filling in orders have been smaller than expected and that the commodity price situation generally is, and has been a bar to fullest activity in distributive trade.

Collections are little if any better than fair. Summed up, trade as well as speculation seems to be in a waiting stage. Pending a clearer view of the ultimate crop situation the disposition is to postpone future committments.

Sentiment as regards iron and steel trade conditions has improved.

Business failures in the United States for the week ending with May 19 were 225 against 216 last week 219 in the like week of 1909.

MARKET VERY DULL

Liverpool and New Orleans Closed Out of Respect to King.

New York, May 20.—Liverpool and New Orleans Exchanges were closed today in respect to the funeral of King Edward and our Exchange regretted the impossibility under its by-laws.

Without the comparison figures and Southern prices our market has been very dull. A sharp decline in July deliveries following some offerings, showed the fragile nature of that position when not supported. A quick rally came with the usual bidding on the decline. Conservative traders are awaiting the old crop deliveries. Heavy rains are reported in the Gulf States and an excess is used as an argument in favor of better prices. This is a fear and a possibility only but in the present overstrained condition of the market, was successful in hardening prices toward the close of the day.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, May 20.—The cotton goods market holds quiet and steady with converters buying moderately. Yarns are quiet with the recent firmness in prices maintained. The wool markets here rule quiet. Jobbers are finding more application on wash goods and other seasonable fabrics.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, May 20.—Wheat prospects in the Lone Star State heretofore so glowing, were voted into the comet class today for dimness and uncertainty. In one stretch of thirty-five miles, there was said to be only one field of wheat left, and that so burned up the grain would not be cut. The alleged news saved the day for the bulls. The closing prices for active futures scored in consequence a net gain of a shade to 1-8. May delivery finished 1-2c down. Corn showed a loss of 1-4 to 5-8 and oats 1-8 to 1-4 to 3-8. Final figures for provisions were unchanged to 7 1-2c lower.

THE STOCK MARKET.

New York, May 20.—As a tribute of respect to the memory of the King of England and during the fneral services of that Monarch, the stock exchange did not begin its session today until noon. The character of the market was little changed by that or by any other matter.

The extreme dullness of the market was accompanied by the strong undertone which was manifest yesterday. An influence on this result was the promise of a strong bank return for the week to be made tomorrow. The estimates of the week's currency movement indicate that large shipments have been coming into New York from other points and the sub-treasury, also, by reason of the monthly pension payments, has made large contributions of cash to the banks. The gain in that item promises in consequence to reach as much as $12,000,000. The easier tendency for money rates, both for call and time loans, is explained by this development. Another influence is the almost total lack of demand for stock market purchases. Notwithstanding the accummulation of cash, the banks manifest but little disposition to purchase mercantile paper, the rates on prime grades of which range from 4 3-4 to 5 1-4. An incident of the day was a revival of rumors that United States Steel would be listed on the Paris bourse. The expected increase in the dividend rate on Chesapeake and Ohio was greeted by a fractional decline in the price of that stock. The speculative operations in Reading and in Canadian Pacific were continued in a desultory fashion. Neither these nor any other operations were sufficient to give an ination to the market.

The day's advices regarding crop prospects were considered favorable but not decisively enough so to make an effective influence in the stock market.

The tone of the closing was strong, with considerable show of activity.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, were $1,290,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales for the day were 295,000 shares.

THE FINANCIAL MARKET.

New York, May 20.—Money on call steady 3 to 3 1-2, ruling rate 3, closing bid 2 1-2, offered at 3 1-2 per cent. Time loans very dull and easy. Sixty days and ninety days, 3 3-4 to 4 per cent.; six months 4 to 4 1-4. Prime mercantile paper 4 3-4 to 5 per cent. Sterling exchange firm with actual business in bankers bills at 4.8410 to 4.8425 for sixty day bills and at 4.8740 for demand. Commercial bills at 4.83 1-2 to 4.84. Bar silver 53 7-8. Mexican dollars 44.

HOW TO CURE RHEUMATISM.

It Is an Internal Disease and Requires an Internal Remedy.

The cause of rheumatism and kindred diseases is an excess of uric acid in the blood. To cure this terrible disease this acid must be expelled and the system so regulated that no more acid will be formed in excessive quantities. Rheumatism is an internal disease and requires an internal remedy. Rubbing with oils and liniments will not cure, affords only temporary relief at best, and allows the malady to get a firmer hold on you. Liniments may ease the pain, but they will no more cure rheumatism than paint will change the fibre of rotten wood.

Science has at last discovered a perfect and complete cure, which is called "Rheumacide." Tested in hundreds of cases, it has effected the most marvelous cures; we believe it will cure you. Rheumacide "gets at the joints from the inside," sweeps the poisons out of the system, tones up the system, regulates the liver and kidneys and makes you feel well all over. Rheumacide "strikes the root of the disease and removes its cause." This splendid remedy is sold by druggists and dealers generally at 50c and $1 a bottle. In Tablet form at 25c and 50c a package. Get a bottle today. Booklet free if you write to Bobbitt Chemical Co, Baltimore, Md.

GATHERING OF CLANS.

All Roads Led to Red Springs on Wednesday This Week.

(Fayetteville Observer.)

All roads led to Red Springs on Wednesday the 18th inst. The early morning rains kept some away, no doubt, and it looked for awhile that the long looked for picnic would be a failure, not so, for the people came by rail, in automobiles, carriages and buggies, until it was whispered around, "They are all here." It was a great day for everybody, but the Scots, like Halley's comet, "had the date" and were in their glory. Other folks had to "sit up and take notice."

The Scotch Society of America held its session by invitation of Dr. C. G. Vardell in the large auditorium of the Southern Presbyterian College, and Conservatory of Music. This being the last and greatest day of the commencement of 1910, together with the Scots' picnic made it one of the greatest days in the history of the growing town of Red Springs. The piper was there with his bagpipe making the welkin ring with his strange music. He delighted the old people and furnished amusement for the young folks. He promenaded through the great crowds that thronged about him, playing all the time old Scotch tunes such as "The Cammels are Coming., etc. This part of the programme reached the climax when Mr. M. D. Bethune, a well known Confederate soldier, took the floor to the music of the bag pipe and danced, as only a gentleman of the old school can, to the delight of everybody.

Rev. A. H. McArn, of Cheraw, S. C., delivered a superb address on "The Scotch."

This speech was "Scotchy" enough to please the Scots and to make others envy their good name in American history.

MOURNED ON THIS SIDE.

Services in Honor of King Edward in This Country.

New York, May 20.—The life of the late King Edward and its influence upon the world's progress and material welfare were the themes of eloquent addresses delivered in Trinity church this afternoon at the memorial exercises held under the auspices of St. George's Society. The pew which the King occupied when he visited New York fifty years ago were kept vacant and decorated with purple wreaths and draperies. Owing to the demand for tickets to Trinity, which was far in excess of the accommodations, an overflow service was held in St. Paul's chepel.

Ottawa, Ont., May 20.—General mourning was observed throughout Canada today.

In every city, town and village, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, business was totally suspended for at least a part of the day, while the citizens attended public memorial exercises in honor of the late King.

In Halifax, Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Quebec and other large cities the exercises were conducted on an elaborate an dimprssive scale.

BALLOON CENTENNIAL LANDS.

Remained in Air 22 Hours—Covered 450 Miles.

Detroit, Mich., May 20.—A Free Press special from Iona, Mich., says: "The balloon Centennial piloted by Captain H. E. Honeywell and carrying also William F. Assman, left St. Louis, Mo., yesterday in an attempt to capture the Lahm cup for long distance flights, landed today at the little town of Shiloh, ten miles north of Ionia. The balloon had been in the air 22 hours and had covered 450 miles.

Crossing Lake Michigan early today from Kenosha, Wis., the balloonists made good time at high altitude and had hopes of reaching New England until they encountered a calm over central Michigan.

After vainly trying different altitudes for a favorable wind they landed gently between 3 and 4 o'clock. They left tonight for St. Louis.

WAKE FOREST FINALS.

Sixty-Six Diplomas Awarded to Sixty-Three Graduates.

Wake Forest, May 20.—The graduating exercises this morning marked the conclusion of one of the most successful of Wake Forest commencements.

Sixty-six diplomas were awarded to 63 graduates. Orations were delivered by Dee Carrick, E. T. Olive, H. B. Jones, A. R. Williams, E. N. Johnson, and F. T. Collins, of the graduating class.

Mr. F. T. Collins, who spoke on "The Passing of the Old Guard", was awarded the A. P. Ward medal.

Following the presentation of the diplomas President Poteat made the Baccalaureate address.

Tonight will be held the reception in the Society Halls. President Hobgood, of the board of trustees announced that the salaries of the professors had been increased for the next year.

NO MODIFICATION OF ORGANIZATION

body in session here by the ad interim committee on co-ordination of executive committees. One of the greatest changes recommended by the committee of which Dr W. J. Bachman, the moderator was chairman, was the reduction of the members of the executive committee corresponding to the boards in the northern Presbyterian church, to four.

According to the report there would be an executive committee of home missions, including departments of colored evangelization and of general evangelistic work. An executive committee on ministerial education and relief, including departments on schools and colleges and on the Assembly's home and school, an executive committee on foreign missions and an executive committee on publication and Sabbath schools. This arrangement would discontinue the independence of the executive committee on colored work and on school and colleges.

The recommendation was based on the complaint that the work of the church was confused.

At the same time the Assembly's standing committee on benevolence was recommended to be made permanent with enlarged powers. Radical changes in the method of raising funds for Assembly causes were recommended.

It was urged that the stated beneficences of the church has been separated from its current expenses and local work for charity and that special committees be named by the churches to canvass the congregations for subscriptions to benevolent causes. It was recommended also that the number of special collections be reduced to eight, two each for foreign missions, home missions and ministerial education and relief, one each for Sabbath School missions and publication for Bible cause.

Before the report of this committee was taken up, Dr. Bachman completed the organization of the Assembly by announcing the standing committees. Dr. W. E. Boggs, Atlanta, Ga., was made chairman of the committee on bills and overtures and Dr. Russell Cecil, Richmond, Va., of that on judicial business, the two most important committees.

PRAISED W. J. BRYAN

Honored Guest at Dinner Given By Speaker's Club.

New York, May 20.—"O contaminated Soul, illustrious leader, peerless philosopher and pure minded advocate of the people," were a few of the descriptive phrases hung in garlands about the neck of William Jennings Bryan tonight by the speakers who preceded him at a dinner given in his honor here by the Speakers' Club.

Mr. Bryan eschewed politics and confined himself to his subject of 'What Constitutes a Good Speaker."

"I can claim to be a public speaker," he said with a suggestion of a smile, "if you take quantity for a qualification rather than quality. It is safe to say I've talked as much as any one, for the opportunity I had."

The audience shrieked with delight. "I've heard the chairman introduce me," continued Mr. Bryan, "like this: 'We have with great effort pusuaded Mr. Bryan to speak.' They didn't know me. I believe in public speaking. I am glad to help within my power to make more public speakers. For in portion as a government is a popular government, just in that proportion should every citizen have the ability to speak.

"Oratory, in truth, is not dead and not only has the newspaper not removed the necessity for public speaking, but it has made it imperative that there should be public speaking to expose the misrepresentations of some newspapers."

One of the compliments tendered Mr. Bryan did not please him. Earlier in the evening John Temple Graves had said "From the tip of his eloquent tongue he has plucked three presidential nominations."

In the course of his speech Mr. Bryan replied:

"It wasn't fair to say that I have won three presidential nominations with my tongue, or to intimate that whatever prominence I have attained has been by speech. Whatever strength I have is not individual, but is reflexive and has come to me because of the things I have advocated. The things I have stood for have not failed and there are a great many people who believe I believe what I say."

BAD FEEDSTUFFS

First Seizure Under New South Carolina Law.

Columbia, May 20.—The first prosecution under the new feedstuff inspection act will likely be instituted in a few days against a firm shipping into the State a car of damaged corn to Sternberg & Co., merchants at Clio, Marion county.

Commissioner Watson, to whom the Clio merchants reported the car as suspicious, has not yet ascertained the name of the shipping firm.

The inspection of samples was made by Drs. Babcock and Watson, pellagrous experts, who say that feeding a car of such stuff would do $10,000 damage to stock in Marion.

MR. TOMPKINS IMPROVED

Returns to Charlotte From High Shoals Looking Better.

Charlotte, N. C., May 20.—Mr. D. A. Tompkins returned this morning from High Shoals, where he has been for the past week. His friends were delighted to see him on the streets this morning and still more gratified to note the marked improvement in his condition. Although Mr. Tompkins has not entirely gained his strength, he is out of the woods, and the public generally will learn of his rapid improvement with the keenest interest and pleasure.

Detroit, May 20.—The balloon Centennial, piloted by H. E. Honeywell, which left St. Louis yesterday in an attempt to beat the long distance record, landed at Fenwick, Montcalm county, late today.

Birmingham, Ala., May 20.—Boys sent up a number of fire balloons with skyrockets attacned during last night at Talladega and many negroes seeing them and thinking the comet was going to do damage fled in terror.

AMES SPRUNG SENSATION.

Read Letters in House in Which He Scored Payne.

Washington, May 20.—A sensation was sprung unexpectedly in the House late today by Representative Butler Ames, a Republican member from Massachusetts, when he obtained the floor to read a series of letters which had passed between himself and Representative Serene E. Payne, of New York, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, and Republican floor leader, in which he scored Mr. Payne in strong language.

The letters concerned a resolution introduced in the House March 31st by Mr. Ames, which set forth that negotiations should be opened with Canada with a view to establishing closer commercial relations with that country. Mr. Ames' resolution was referred to the Ways and Means Committee, and the author charged that Mr. Payne refused to allow the committee to consider it, although he (Ames) presented a petition favoring it, signed by 77 Republican members and also caused President Taft to write a letter to Mr. Payne urging the adoption of the resolution.

In his letters Mr. Ames informed Mr. Payne that the latter's whole attitude in the matter had "lacked in common courtesy and a proper sense of proportion." The second letter of Mr. Ames dated May 16th, was a vigorous attack upon Mr. Payne's methods. In it Mr. Ames said: "On three separate days I approached your august person and asked verbally and politely for a hearing by your committee on my resolution. To my first request you arrogantly insisted that as far as you could find out no one wanted the resolution and it was not good political sense. Believing that your lack of courtesy was inexcusable, and that you were unable to understand or appreciate that many Republican members of the House not only wanted the resolurion passed, but who, not yet having lost all touch with present desires of the party and the country generally did believe the resolution to be good political sense, I went to the unusual labor of circulating a petition which I enclosed."

Continuing the letter said that the petition was signed by 77 Republican members, Mr. Payne had given it no consideration. It re-counted that its author had seen a letter dictated in his presence by President Taft and addressed to Mr. Payne favoring the resolution. It recited that Mr. Ames had twice spoken to Mr. Payne about the President's letter and that Mr. Payne told him "His (Payne's) relations were such with the President that when he wrote you such a letter he did not want the resolution."

After expressing surprise that the petition of 77 Republican members should be disregarded, Mr. Ames' letter continued in part:

"Your statement that your conversation with some of the signers of my petition does not strengthen my position,' is at once ungentlemanly and insulting.

"Your whole attitude has so lacked in common courtesy and a proper sense of proportion that I feel forced to make this written protest. Your letter, if freely translated, should be interpreted to read, 'The desires of many Republican members and the public be damned'.

"It is just such hide-bound intolerance of the desires and rights of others that is forcing members to advocate against their better judgment a committee of committees in the House in order to purge itself of such individual misrule and abuse of power. It is just such domination and disregard of the public desire that is fostering the movement of insurgency not only in the House but also the widespread insurgency with which we are now face to face."

When Mr. Ames had concluded Mr. Payne said he had informed Mr. Ames that he believed the President should take up the Canadian negotiations and after that it would be time for Congress to act.

Mr. Payne said that he had conferred with members of the House who had signed Mr. Ames petition and some of them said they didn't know what they signed while others said they didn't care anything about it, one way or the other.

"So far as I am concerned myself," concluded Mr. Payne "I did not propose, by my vote in the committee, to bring up the question of the tariff in any way during this session of Congress, and to that I adhere."

VESSEL BURNED AT SEA.

Nineteen Persons Taken Off by Life-Savers—Captain's Wife Rescued.

San Francisco, May 20.—The steamer J. Marhoffer, which left San Francisco for Portland, Ore., on May 14, has been burned at sea, 20 miles north of Newport, Ore.

Capt. Wellander, of the United States life saving station, reports that 19 persons from the burned steamer, including the captain and his wife, have landed safely in their own boats.

$3.50 Recipe Cures Weak Kidneys, Free

Relieves Urinary and Kidney Troubles, Backache, Straining, Swelling, Etc.

Wouldnt it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and the back-of-the-head aches; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency?

I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: "Dr. A. E. Robinson, K-1351 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.

It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free—you can use it and cure yourself at home.

TWENTIETH IN CHARLOTTE

Automobile Display Great in Spite of The Weather.

Charlotte, N. C., May 20.—Automobile day in Charlotte, celebrating the "Glorious Twentieth" was a grand success, and the parade was witnessed by thousands along the official route.

"Such an exhibition of automobiles as I saw in the parade today would do credit to cities of thrice the size of Charlotte," declared a gentleman from the North who witnessed the parade this morning and he spoke advisedly. Early in the day some apprehension was felt lest the weather might interfere, but the weather god decided to help out the local committee, and dispensed such weather as was desired, though the sun was hidden by clouds for a considerable part of the time.

The exhibition of fine cars, such as was seen in the city this morning, was never surpassed in the history of the town. There were cars of every make style and size, and of every value, and all were decorated in keeping with the importance of the occasion, and in the long parade that stretcher from Independence Square down South Tryon, at least two-thirds of the distance to Morehead, which was the turning point made a beautiful and striking picture. The line of march of the automobiles was outlined by a haze of blue gasoline fumes, which hung over the streets, as far as the line of autos extended, the never failing sign that an automobile is close at hand.

To the strenuous exertions of the committee in charge of the parade, composed of the most prominent and enthusiastic autoists of the city, and some who are not autoists, a great deal of credit is due for the fine and well-managed exhibition of autos that was seen today, as well as the successful outcome of the entire affair.
